'Connie' Flays N. Carolina, Threatens Northeast Coast

DEATH TRAP FOR 21 IN OHIO. An explosion and fire which killed 21 persons apparently began in a restaurant and dairy store—a mere heap of rubble in this airview—at Andover, O. Then flames spread to other buildings in the block. Most of the dead were found in the debris, and only a few of the bodies could be identified.

South Korean Killed by U.S. Guard's Shots

Two Others Wounded In Theft Try; Riots Continue on U.N. Unit

SEOUL (AP) —A South Korean was shot and killed today and riots continued in rising tension over President Syngman Rhee's demand that pro-Communist truce inspectors get out of Korea by Saturday midnight. Two other Koreans were wounded.

U. S. Army reports indicated a U S. guard aboard a ship shot the three Koreans with his carbine. The guard said the three were stealing milk from a barge.

Rhee 'Can't Control Them'

An informed source said, meanwhile, that Rhee advised the U.S. government he could not control South Korean demonstrators unless U. S. troops guarding truce team personnel put away their weapons.

An informed source said Gen. L. L. Lemnitzer, United Nations commander, in a Thursday conference with Rhee, charged —and Rhee heatedly denied — that the Korean demonstrations were government inspired.

It has been common knowledge that South Korean officials in the past have ordered "spontaneous" demonstrations supporting other Rhee objectives.

The source said Rhee told Lemnitzer the United States also must promise to help in peaceful eviction of Communist members of the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission.

At Panmunjom U. S. Maj. Gen. Harlan C. Parks told a stormy military armistice commission session that "illegal" activities by Polish and Czech NNSC members had provoked South Korea's seething demonstrations.

No Connection With Riots

An 8th Army spokesman said a U. S. soldier guard aboard a ship in Inchon harbor had fired his carbine at three Koreans in a boat. He said the guard spotted them trying to steal canned milk from a barge at 3 a.m.

The guard's action, he said, had no connection with any anti-truce team demonstration.

The Korean national police insisted, however, that three Korean fishermen were hit by fire from a U. S. Army patrol boat guarding Wolmi Island, NNSC team headquarters.

'CONNIE' THE HURRICANE RIPS BOARDWALK. Huge waves caused by hurricane Connie rip the boardwalk apart at Carolina Beach, N. C. Several coastal areas have been abandoned.

Warnings Up All the Way to Provincetown

Another Hurricane, 'Diane,' Building Up Strength Off Bermuda

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP) —Hurricane Connie, pounding the North Carolina coast with destructive winds and high seas, again became a threat to the rest of the Eastern Seaboard today.

The big tropical storm speeded up on a course along the North Carolina coast leading to the open ocean where her force could be maintained. Hurricanes usually lose their force in crossing land and Connie appeared headed landward Thursday. The East Coast had been under hurricane alert for three days while Connie floundered offshore. It was lifted late Thursday.

Warnings Extended

The Weather Bureau extended hurricane warnings on up the coast from the Virginia capes to the Delaware breakwater and northeast storm warnings all the way to Provincetown, Mass.

At 10 a.m., the Weather Bureau reported that hurricane Connie moved inland at Morehead City, N. C., and is moving northward at 12 miles an hour.

The hurricane was about 270 miles south of Washington, D.C.

The hurricane flags still flew as far south as Myrtle Beach, S. C., but further danger from wind appeared past south of the North Carolina border.

At 8 a.m. EST, Connie was centered about 30 miles southeast of Morehead City, N. C., and was moving north - northeastward (a little east of north) at about 12 miles an hour.

Connie's peak winds of 100 miles an hour were mostly in squalls within 50 miles from the center. Hurricane winds — 75 miles or more — fanned out 120 miles north and east and 60 miles southwest. Gales reached 300 miles to the northeast and 150 to the southwest.

Diane Gaining Power

Meanwhile the season's fourth tropical storm — named Diane— was centered 520 miles south-southeast (more south than east) of Bermuda early today. Diane had center winds of 60 miles an hour as she moved northwest at 11 miles an hour in much the same path Connie took several days earlier.

Diane was expected to become a full hurricane later today.

Connie's center winds have been up to 135 miles but they diminished somewhat as she neared the coast.

Tides ran up to eight feet above normal ahead of Connie's eye.

Cape Hatteras, a lonely outpost on North Carolina's outer banks which is a frequent port of call on the hurricane path from the Caribbean, braced for arrival of Connie's center about noon.

The Carolina coast was pounded steadily from late Thursday afternoon all through the night as the big storm loafed along.

Housing Bill Is Signed, but Ike Seeks Changes

Wants Entire Program Passed; Law Enables FHA To Keep Going

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower says he hopes Congress will act "at the earliest opportunity" to revise the new housing law which he approved Thursday while voicing "serious objections" to some provisions.

The chief executive said in a statement he had signed the bill because it contained "important provisions" designed to eliminate slums and to continue the mortgage insurance program, "thereby enabling families of moderate income to acquire or improve their own homes."

Saves FHA Program

The new law authorizes four billion dollars more for FHA mortgage insurance. Without such authority, officials had estimated that this program would grind to a halt this fall.

It authorizes also the construction of 45,000 low rental public housing units in the year ending next June 30. This was one of the provisions criticized by Eisenhower, who had asked for 35,000 units in each of the next two years.

"The full program which I recommended is needed," he said, "and it can be carried out by our local communities and the federal government in a more orderly and efficient manner over a two-year period."

Eisenhower objected also to a provision cutting the slum clearance and urban redevelopment program, for which 500 million dollars is authorized, free from the public housing program.

Other Provisions

In other provisions, the new law:

Military housing—puts up $1,363,500,000 for construction of upwards of 100,000 dwelling units for married personnel at military installations. The Defense Department would own the houses, rent them to its personnel, and pay for any losses.

College housing — Authorizes a 500 million dollar program of low-interest loans for college construction projects.

Farm housing—Provides 100 million dollars for farm housing loans.

Public facility loans—Sets up a 100 million dollar revolving fund for loans to municipalities for public utility projects including water, sewer and gas installations.

Hunt Continues For the Dead in Andover's Blast

ANDOVER, Ohio (AP)—Tired rescue crews, pushing aside blackened beams with crowbars and digging into ashes with shovels, continued to search the wreckage along Andover's explosion - torn square today for more victims.

Officials said the death toll from the blast and fire which hit this small farming community Wednesday night may rise above the last figure, 21. At least 21 persons were injured.

A number of queries about missing persons indicate two or three more bodies might still be undiscovered in the debris, the officials said.

Bodies of 19 victims had been positively identified by early today.

Two bodies lying in a garage used as a temporary morgue still were unidentified.

The cause of the explosion, which centered in the Gateway Restaurant, where many of the victims had sought shelter from a storm, remained a mystery. One theory is that it was caused by either escaping fuel gas or by sewer gas backed up by clogged drains.

East Liverpool To Lose Buses

Transit Co. Requests Permission To Leave

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Valley Motor Transit Co. of East Liverpool today applied for state utilities commission permission to abandon service.

The firm's franchise for city service in East Liverpool expires next Dec. 8. It also provides service between East Liverpool and neighboring towns in West Virginia and between Wellsville, Ohio, and Beaver, Pa.

The application, signed by H. R. Frederick, vice president and general manager, said the firm has been losing money because of increased use of private automobiles by former patrons. He said the firm's loss in the year ended June 30, 1954, was $24,446, and in the year ended June 30, 1955, it was $51,719.

U.S. Diplomat Killed as Auto Strikes Truck

John Peurifoy, Son Die in Thailand; 2nd Son Seriously Injured

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) —A car-truck crash today killed U. S. Ambassador John E. Peurifoy, 48, a diplomatic trouble shooter who starred in settlement of Guatemala's 1954 civil war.

A man who liked fast sports cars, Peurifoy and his 9-year-old son, Daniel, perished when his Ford Thunderbird collided head-on with a truck on a narrow bridge 125 miles south of Bangkok.

Other Son Injured

The ambassador's other son, Clinton Peurifoy, 14, was injured critically in the smashup, which came near the beach resort of Hua Hin, on the Gulf of Siam.

The ambassador, who celebrated his 48th birthday Tuesday, came to Thailand last November after service in Greece and Guatemala. A career diplomat, he began his government service in 1935 as a $90-a-month elevator operator in the Senate Office Building in Washington.

He had arrived in the resort Thursday with his wife, Betty Jane and their two sons for a 10-day holiday. This morning he took the boys to a nearby police training base to watch Thai paratroopers in an air-dropping operation.

Crashed on Way Back

Reports received in Bangkok said the accident occurred as the trio was on the way back to Hua Hin.

In the spring before he was named the Bangkok post Peurifoy had won widespread attention for his role during the overthrow of the pro - Communist regime in Guatemala. Although he kept in the background at first to avoid charges of intervention, both sides turned to him for advice during the fighting and he played a major role in the peace settlement which

Young Fugitive Is Charged in Deaths of Five

SEYMOUR, Ind. (AP)—A 16-year-old Kentucky fugitive, lying critically injured in Schneck Memorial Hospital, faces charges of reckless homicide and involuntary manslaughter in the highway deaths of five Ohioans.

Prosecutor James L. Laupus filed charges yesterday against Larry Howard of Louisville. He also charged Howard and Glenn E. Fletcher, 16, Knox, Ind., with vehicle taking.

Killed in the accident late Wednesday were Mrs. Delores Gehrman, 23, her 19-month-old daughter, Susan Gehrman, and her mother, Mrs. Olive Grubb, 41, Lakeview, Ohio; Mrs. Gehrman's former husband, William W. Gehrman, 32, Hamilton, Ohio, and Robert M. Gannon, 36, Russells Point, Ohio.

The Ohioans were just starting a trip to California in an automobile Mrs. Gehrman had bought at Cincinnati Saturday. As they were driving through Seymour on U. S. 50, a stolen car swerving around a police blockade smashed their car.

Police said Howard recently escaped from the Kentucky State Village at Greendale, where he had been sent as a juvenile delinquent. He formerly lived at Knox.

Idaho Village First To Get Atom Power

GENEVA (AP)—American atomic scientists announced a distinction today for Arco, Idaho (pop. 1,200). It was cited as the first community in the United States to use light and power produced from nuclear energy.

The scientists said Arco received its entire supply of electricity for more than an hour July 17 from an experimental power plant operated by the Argonne National Laboratory at the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission's national reactor testing station 20 miles away.

People Didn't Know

A U.S. spokesman said "the people of Arco didn't even know about it."

Several weeks ago, by-product power from an experimental submarine reactor at West Milton, N.Y. began to be fed, on an interruptible basis, into the general system of an electrical utility company. But, in this instance, the nuclear-produced electricity constitutes a supplement to electricity generated by conventional means.

The announcement of the Arco experiment was made by the U.S. delegation to the 72-nation atoms-for-peace conference.

Conventional power to Arco lines from the Utah Power and Light Co., was disconnected and reactor power switched in, the announcement said.

"Although the transmission of electricity from the nuclear power plant to Arco was by prior arrangement discontinued after the demonstration had been completed," it added, "the generation of electricity at the testing station site is being continued."

Plant Called Borax

The experimental plant is known as Borax, an abbreviation for "boiling water experiment." It generates more than 2,000 kilowatts of electricity. The announcement said:

"The simplicity of construction, ease of operation, low cost and high degree of safety suggest that this type of small power plant is suitable for use in remote areas or in conjunction with mining or manufacturing operations."

Along the same line, Russian scientists are exhibiting at the conference a model of a 5,000-kilowatt atomic power station in the Moscow region which they say has been furnishing power since the summer of 1954.

The Borax reactor has been under development by Argonne for two years.

An experimental facility for conducting studies of a reactor of this type was built at the testing station site in the summer of 1953 and tests and operating characteristics were tested.

"The tests were sufficiently encouraging so that additional studies were made in the summer of 1954," the U.S. announcement said. "Experience gained during the operation of this reactor warranted the addition of a turbo generator

Idaho Town's Citizens Proud Of Distinction

ARCO, Idaho (AP)—It was quite an experience for this little Idaho farming community, the first in the nation to get its entire supply of electrical power from an atomic energy plant.

"We were all talking about it," said Ralph M. Ellison, mayor of the town which grew from a population of about 300 to an estimated 2,000 when construction of the Atomic Energy Commission's national reactor testing station was at its peak.

For one hour, July 17, the Utah Power and Light Co., which normally supplies the community, cut off its power. Instead, power flowed from an experimental nuclear power plant at the testing station.

"It was kind of a secret ahead of time," Ellison said today. "The town board knew about it in advance of course. Then after it was over we were all talking about it."

Ellison said "the lights went out when they made the switch" but he added that "we couldn't tell any difference while the atomic-generated power was flowing."

As for Arco's selection for the experiment, Ellison said: "Well, we thought that was quite an honor."

Arco is the center of a livestock area and farmers grow considerable potatoes and small grains.

Present population is estimated at 1,200 to 1,500 but Ellison says it varies considerably, as construction at the nearby atomic plant speeds up or slows down. Most of the transient workers are housed in trailers.

Cuban Back From Exile

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Back from three years of political exile, former President Carlos Prio Socarras settled down in a suite at the Hotel Nacional today to await refurnishing of his palatial country estate.

Prio was booted out in the 1952 military coup which returned Fulgencio Batista to power. He arrived by plane Thursday night from Miami.

Ohio Asks 20 States To Okay New Tax Pact

Threatens To Cancel Reciprocity Contracts If Changes Not Okayed

CHICAGO (AP)—Ohio has asked 20 states to amend reciprocity agreements with Ohio to allow collection of the state's axle-mile tax.

If the other states refuse to change the agreements, Ohio has served notice it will cancel the pacts.

Governors Get Word

The development was brought to light yesterday when Gov. Frank J. Lausche, attending the 47th annual governors' conference here, said he had personally delivered letters to governors of the 20 states, spelling out Ohio's demands.

These demands, he said, were that the reciprocity agreements be revised so as not to apply to Ohio's axle tax. The tax, a levy for use of Ohio highways, ranges from one-half to 2½ cents a mile on trucks with more than two axles.

The Ohio Supreme Court recently held that Ohio could not levy the axle-mile tax on Michigan truckers because the tax was covered by a 1937 reciprocity agreement between the two states.

The court ordered Ohio to refund more than one million dollars in axle tax levies collected from Michigan truckers. In effect, this also cancelled more than two million dollars in assessments which Michigan truckers had refused to pay.

Predicted Doom of Tax

State officials immediately began predicting the doom of the tax. That's when Lausche asked the Ohio Motor Vehicle Reciprocity Board to request amendment of similar agreements with other states.

The board drew up letters to governors of 20 states with which Ohio has these pacts. It was not known if the wording of the letters was changed before the governor signed them.

Million Already Given

Southern States Proceed With Second Polio Shots

WASHINGTON (AP)—Doctors have given over a million American youngsters their second Salk polio vaccine shots, with the South leading the way.

All told, 6½ million first and second-graders received a first shot.

Survey Conducted

Somewhere around 60 to 70 per cent of those with access to the second shot have had it.

These figures were turned up today in a nationwide survey conducted by The Associated Press. It showed:

1. The number of polio fatalities has dropped 46 per cent below last year's level. In the key states supplying second shots, the decline has been 65 per cent.

2. Of 6½ million inoculated youngsters, there have been 247 cases of the disease and nine have died of it.

3. Outside the South, there has been considerable resistance to launching the second-shot campaign, which was delayed by uncertainty and shortage of vaccine. Eighteen of the 48 states are waiting for fall to renew the campaign. Few states have made any plans for a third injection.

These figures were tabulated on the basis of nearly complete reports from the 48 states and the District of Columbia:

Given shot No. 1 — 6,458,996.
Given shot No. 2 — 1,080,329.
Polio deaths this year — 191.
Polio deaths to this time last year — 355.

Fatalities Reduced

It is impossible, of course, to draw definitive conclusions from the statistics, since some figures are tentative, they have not been evaluated scientifically, and the possibility of coincidence is too strong.

There can be no doubt, however, that the number of polio fatalities has been reduced sharply from the level of last year, a fairly average year.

Biggest decline in deaths has

W. A. Howison Selected As Eber Baker Principal

William A. (Pete) Howison was named principal of Eber Baker Junior High School late Thursday afternoon at a special meeting of the Marion Board of Education.

He will succeed Clark M. Fouts, who resigned to accept a post as principal at Mount Vernon High School.

ROBERT S. BROWN, city school superintendent, said the appointment was a unanimous action by the five-member school board.

"We're very pleased," Brown said. He praised Howison as a top-flight educator and termed him a "natural" for the post at Eber Baker.

Howison has been in the Marion school system for nine years, eight of them as head football coach at Harding High School. He announced his resignation from the grid post late last fall. He also has been a teacher of mathematics.

If Adlai Slips, Averell Moves In

Stevenson and Harriman Have Pact for Campaign

CHICAGO (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson and Gov. Averell Harriman of New York apparently have reached an informal working agreement aimed at bringing one of them the 1956 Democratic presidential nomination.

Associates confirmed that the former Illinois governor, who was beaten by President Eisenhower in 1952, has come to an understanding with Harriman under which Stevenson will get first crack.

Would Shift to Harriman

These associates said, however, that if it becomes apparent at any point in the next 12 months that Stevenson is unlikely to make the grade, he could be expected to attempt to shift his strength quickly to Harriman.

Together Stevenson and Harriman represent the two potentially most powerful voting blocs in next summer's convention. Starting with his Illinois home base vote of 60, Stevenson has wide support within the party ranks. There is some doubt, however, that he could muster sufficient votes to win the nomination without New York's 96 in the early balloting.

It is accepted generally that unless something happens to upset the working agreement, that if Stevenson appears to be going into the convention with a commanding position, he will get the New York support that probably would clinch his nomination.

Should He Try Primaries?

Harriman's chance at the prize apparently depends on Stevenson's flunking his preconvention campaign tests after he makes a promised formal announcement of his intentions in November.

The Stevenson camp still is divided on whether the former Illinois governor ought to go into primaries to test his strength locally against other potential candidates like Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn).

Advisers who oppose such strategy argue that Kefauver won a lot

Senator Hails Curtailment of Tax Write-Offs

O'Mahoney Praises Administration's Move Ending War Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) said today the Eisenhower administration "should be congratulated" for moving to curtail tax benefits which have helped industry expand in the past five years.

Director Arthur S. Flemming of the Office of Defense Mobilization announced late yesterday new orders which may lead to a sharp tapering off in the kind of tax incentives which have been granted for some 30½ billion dollars worth of plant and equipment expansion held to be essential to national security.

Tightens Credit

The action came after a series of other orders aimed at tightening up the supply of credit. Some administration officials have termed these a gradual effort to prevent prices from starting to climb again.

Flemming ordered an end to special tax benefits in 19 industries and a suspension, pending a review expected to take a month or more, in 38 others. The incentives were kept available for 20 "expansion goals" — chiefly applying to items of high military demand.

The government has pending 924 applications for the tax benefits, covering about $9,300,000,000 of proposed new plant and equipment construction. About six billions of this is in the 38 industries for which Flemming ordered the temporary suspension Thursday.

O'Mahoney said in an interview the tax incentives first granted after war started in Korea were supposed to be for defense purposes. But in the last two years they have been extended to many industries having no direct connection with defense and thus were "due for curtailment," he added.

Similar to War Program

The present tax writeoff program was similar to but much larger than one used in World War II. Under it, companies undertaking approved expansion projects can write off a portion of the cost for tax purposes in five years. The share which may be so written off is fixed by the ODM in each individual case. It generally has ranged from 40 to 70 per cent. Since the usual depreciation writeoff period is 20 to 25 years, this means that the firms affected may take much bigger deductions in the first five years than they otherwise could.

The suspended "expansion goals" included such industries as electric power, iron and steel, railroads, oil, metals including aluminum, commercial aircraft, ocean shipping, chemicals and airport facilities.

The industries for which the tax benefits were ended include asbestos, lead, manganese ore, cement, tungsten, zinc, various alloying minerals, and certain tires.

The 20 expansion goals kept open for the fast writeoffs cover such items as aviation fuel, copper, nickel, mercury, titanium, and products ordered directly by the armed services and the Atomic Energy Commission.

Social Security Law Becomes 20 Years Old; Benefits Rising

The tremendous growth of social security coverage was noted today by Paul D. Snider, district manager of the social security office here, in commemorating the 20th anniversary of the law

When the law was signed, on Aug. 14, 1935, only one worker in 10 was covered by any retirement system. Today the law covers about nine persons in 10, he said.

Over 7½ million persons are now receiving over 400 million dollars every month in benefits under the program.

In Marion County, about 2,600 persons receive over $126,000 a month in benefits, he said. Over 70 million people are now insured under the law so that in the event of retirement or death, they or their families will be eligible for benefits.

The average old-age benefit paid at the end of 1940 (first year of monthly payments) was $22.60. The average retired worker is now receiving about $60 a month. However, the average for those who have retired in the last few years is $80 a month and their wives' benefits average $41 a month.

Another important part of the old-age and survivors insurance program is the protection given to widows and children in the event of the workers' death. Today, the average benefits for a young widow, whose husband died in recent years and left two minor children, is $185 a month. Total family benefits can be as much as $250 a month. In addition, lump - sum death payments range from $90 to $255, Snider said.

Money to pay for old-age and survivors insurance comes from social security taxes paid by employes, their employers, and self-employed people. These taxes go into a special trust fund and can be used only to pay benefits and the cost of administering the program. The tax rate at present is two per cent each for employes and employers, and three per cent for self-employed people, on earnings up to $4,200 per year. These rates are scheduled to increase gradually until 1975, when they will be four per cent and six per cent, respectively.

Looking ahead 20 years to 1975, it is expected that of the 20 million persons over 65 at that time, four out of five will be eligible for benefits.

Suitcase Found in Car

Police today have in their possession a suitcase found in her car by a Marion woman Thursday night. Mrs. O. R. Cross of 461 N. State St. told officers she had parked her car on E. Church St. Thursday night while she did some work.

She said that when she returned to the car she found the suitcase in the back of the auto with the contents strewn about on the floor. An identification tag inside the suitcase indicated the owner was a Springfield man, Lewton L. Detrick.

In 1947, he was elevated to the job at Harding where in his first year his charges rolled up seven wins while dropping two games and being tied in one. In his eight years as coach he had only three seasons on the deficit side.

HOWISON has been succeeded at Harding by Gordon K. Larson, former head coach at Akron South High School. Larson is scheduled to arrive in Marion over the weekend for the beginning of staff meetings with his aides next week.

Howison is a native of Marion and was graduated from Harding High School. He received his degree from Ohio Northern University, where he was a member of the football squad. He served three years in the Navy during World II and prior to coming to the Marion system held coaching positions at Canfield, Atwater and Nelson.

of primaries in 1952 but didn't get the nomination. They say the primary road drains funds and time that might be better spent in other efforts to gather delegates.

On the other hand, some of his advisers think the handicap of Stevenson's 1952 defeat requires him to put his name on the line despite the fact that a single primary loss might be so damaging to his prestige as to cost him the nomination.

Some Democratic governors who have been attending the 47th annual Governors Conference here have indicated they think Stevenson is going to have to show his prowess as a vote getter within his own party if he expects to be the choice to take on Eisenhower again.

piers, dwellings and other shore installations, many of them newly rebuilt since Hazel's visit last year.

No Casualties

No casualties had been reported.

Coastal residents had plenty of warning during the days Connie had remained almost stationary off the coast. The vast majority of residents, tourists and natives moved to safety inland. But some were marooned and rescue efforts went on through the night and today.

Nobody made any estimate of damage. Many beach communities and fishing villages were isolated. The damage continued to pile up.

Evacuees by the thousands crowded into schools, churches and other sturdy concrete buildings from Morehead City to Charleston, S.C.

Failing power lines forced many hospitals to turn to auxiliary power. Radio stations in many places were off the air.

At New Bern, N.C., well inland, heavy rains flooded bridges over the Trent and Neuse rivers, closing U.S. Highway 17, the main coastal route from Miami to New York, and the main road to the big Marine air station at Cherry Point.

National Guard trucks evacuated more than 2,000 persons in New Bern from homes near the waterfront to higher ground.

Slate of Officers Elected By Local WCTU Group

Officers of the Florence Richards WCTU headed by Mrs. J. L. McCleary as president were elected at an all-day meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Fred Needles near Big Island. Mrs. R. R. Thornberry was elected first vice president; Mrs. Mildred Jones, second vice president; Mrs. Bertha Barkley, recording secretary; Mrs. Needles, corresponding secretary; Mrs. H. C. Wendler, treasurer; and Mrs. C. O. Reeves, assistant secretary and treasurer. Installation was conducted by Mrs. Ralph Good.

A picnic dinner was served at noon and prayer at the table was by Mrs. Edward G. Pace. Devotions were by Mrs. Charles Clark on "Personal Obligation." Salutes to the American, the Christian and the temperance flags were led by Mrs. H. B. Coon. Members voted to become a "Light Line Union" by contributing to the work of the World WCTU with the money given to be used in teaching temperance on the mission fields. A donation of $5 to help defray traveling expenses of the Marion County WCTU president was voted.

Annual reports by department directors were heard. Review of a chapter from "Fruit of the Vine" study book, was by Mrs. Thornberry. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. McCleary. Guests were Dale Needles Jr. of San Bernardino, Calif., Miss Carol Wendler of Bay Village and Mrs. Charles Forrey and Miss Nancy Fellmeth, both of Marion.

Talks Between Chrysler and Union Snagged

Non-Economic Issues Reported Holding Up Contract Agreement

DETROIT (AP)—Chrysler Corp and the CIO United Auto Workers hit a stumbling block early today in their efforts to wrap up an early agreement on a new contract.

A bargaining session that ran until after midnight ended without a settlement and no further sessions were scheduled. The UAW said it would contact the company early next week to set up another meeting.

May Call for Strike Vote.

In the meantime, the UAW summoned a meeting of its national Chrysler conference this morning to hear a report on the situation. This group, made up of 75 union representatives of Chrysler's 140,000 hourly rated workers, was expected to call for strike votes at all company plants.

Non-economic issues reportedly were delaying a settlement. Spokesmen for both sides still were optimistic, however, that agreement can be reached before the contract expires Aug. 31.

Plant-level issues concerning working conditions also were believed to be blocking a settlement between the UAW and American Motors Corp, which faced a midnight strike deadline as they called another bargaining session today.

Chrysler said it has offered the union the "largest economic package" it has ever proposed, and said it "meets the pattern of benefits granted by Chrysler Corporation's major competitors."

Matches Layoff Plan

The company announced officially for the first time that it has offered to match the layoff pay plans granted the union by Ford and General Motors—the other big three auto companies—in early June.

These guarantee workers 60 to 65 per cent of regular take-home pay for up to 26 weeks of idleness. Trust funds are provided by company payments of five cents per hour per employe.

Chrysler said it also has agreed to general "improvement factor" wage increases of six cents an hour for each year of a proposed three-year contract, additional raises in certain classifications and other benefits.

The average wage of all big three companies before the current round of negotiations was $2.10 an hour.

The midnight strike deadline put more pressure on the American Motors-UAW talks.

AMC (Nash-Kelvinator) also is reported to have agreed to match the economic pattern of the Ford and General Motors pacts.

so that the steam being produced could be converted into a more usable form of energy. This generation plant was placed into operation June 28, 1955, and the production of electricity is continuing on a routine basis."

Picture Presented

A motion picture record of the Arco demonstration was presented to the United Nations today in Geneva. A special showing of the film was given this afternoon for atomic scientists.

The U.S. announcement gave this description of the reactor used in the experiment:

"The reactor consists of a pressure vessel containing an assemblage of enriched uranium bearing plates submerged in water, plus a number of neutron absorbing control rods. The water circulates through the reactor core by natural convection and steam, produced by the heat created by the fissioning of uranium atoms, is conducted to the turbo-generator located in a nearby building."

Korea

The 8th Army confirmed that a Korean died of gunshot wounds. It said his two wounded companions, found in a boat that drifted into the U. S. Army anchorage at Inchon, had been hospitalized.

More than 1,000 South Koreans again tried to storm Wolmi after the shooting incident, but before its details were known.

The Koreans looped ropes around steel gate posts of the NNSC compound and tried to pull them down. American soldiers used tear gas grenades in breaking up the Korean mob's drive.

Morrow County Mishap Reported by Patrolmen

No one was injured in one accident investigated early this morning in Morrow County by state highway patrolmen from the Marion post.

It occurred at 6:50 a.m. on Route 30-S about three miles east of Route 746. Delnore R. Tonguette, 17, of 132 N. Vine St. in Marion, was eastbound and a semi-truck driven by Clinton L. Creighton, 44, of Canton, was westbound when they collided on a bridge, which had been made one-way while being repaired.

Pair Named To Head Appeals Group

Smith, McDaniel Accept Leadership of Unit For Fund Drive

JOHN F. SMITH

M. L. McDANIEL JR.

Named to United Appeals Campaign Positions

John F. Smith and Marion L. McDaniel Jr. have been appointed co-chairmen of the service organizations divisions of the 1955 United Appeals drive, it was announced today by Dr. Frederick T. Merchant, general chairman.

The service organizations division is composed of over 220 smaller firms such as contractors, garages, truckers and transport companies, laundries, dry cleaners, barber and beauty shops, printers, hotels and unclassified.

Smith and McDaniel will appoint seven team captains to assist them, and working with the team captains will be 29 workers.

Smith, who is an insurance man with the firm of Knapp and Smith, is a native of Marion. He is a former member of the Y Men's Clubs and now holds membership in the Kiwanis Club and the Marion County Association of Insurance Agents.

He and his wife, the former Katherine E. Eymon of Marion, reside at 671 Virginia Ave. They have two sons, James C., a senior at Harding High School, and J. Daniel, a second grader at Vernon School.

McDaniel, also a native of Marion, is president and general manager of The McDaniel Motor Co. He is a member of the Rotary Club and serves on the boards of the Red Cross and the Marion Retail Credit Bureau.

He and his wife, the former Marilyn Bachelder of Cambridge Ave., live at 225 Kensington Pl. with their 10-months-old son, Michael.

The United Appeals drive gets under way on Oct. 3.

Tax Pact

But as prepared by the board, this is what they said:

"The purpose of the axle-mile tax is to make certain that the large commercial vehicles pay their share toward this program (Ohio's multimillion dollar highway improvement program) so that the financial burden will be equitably distributed among the various classes of highway users.

"For these reasons, therefore, we feel that the continued collection of this tax is imperative."

The board said it wanted to continue the agreements if possible.

"However, if our present agreements cannot be amended in the manner suggested, we will be driven into a position where our only recourse is to cancel and terminate the agreements.

"We wish to make it clear that in event such agreement is cancelled, the State of Ohio intends to continue full reciprocal privileges on all license plate registration fees so long as out-of-state vehicles are being lawfully operated upon the highways of this state."

Lausche said the agreements would be cancelled within 30 to 90 days unless amended.

2 Already Agree

Lausche said Wisconsin and Tennessee already had agreed to the changes.

The letters were addressed to governors of the states of Alabama, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Louisiana, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Texas and West Virginia.

Lausche said the proposed changes would have no effect on passenger cars from these states operating in Ohio.

Polio

been in the eight states which have given 75 per cent of the reported second shots. Of those eight, seven are Southern or border states. They are Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, Oklahoma, South Carolina and West Virginia. The eighth is California.

Vaccine experts have said three shots are required to provide most effective immunity. The injection program of two shots for first and second-graders is being carried out and financed by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. It has announced no plan to provide third shots.

Most states went ahead with the first shots shortly after the first batches of vaccine were made available last April. But when an outbreak of polio among vaccinated persons was disclosed, the program was ended abruptly.

Surgeon General Leonard A. Scheele has said there is "strong presumptive evidence" that these cases resulted from faulty vaccine but the government has not yet made a final report. It has promised a report next week.

After the Public Health Service approved new safety testing standards, batches of vaccine were released again. But some states were wary of going ahead with the program. And 18, plus the District of Columbia, are still holding the program in abeyance.

Unidentified Man Flees After Molesting Women

Police today are searching for a tall blond-haired man who allegedly molested two Marion women early this morning near the corner of Leader and Chestnut Sts.

The two women reported they were molested as they walked north on Leader St. They told police they were followed by the man for some distance. The women said that when the man came alongside of them he grabbed one by the arm and made several remarks to her.

Police said the woman told them she pushed the man from her and both women began running toward their homes. When they turned around, they told police, the man had disappeared.

Ohio Rural Health Meeting Planned

MARYSVILLE — A 12-county Ohio Rural Health District conference meeting will be held here on Thursday, Oct. 20.

The district includes Marion, Union, Morrow, Delaware, Franklin, Champaign, Clark, Logan, Miami, Preble, Montgomery and Greene counties.

During the morning session the group will study the Union County Well Child Conferences which are active in seven different locations in the county. A demonstration of how the Well Child Conferences operate, covering the details and methods used in the actual operation and individuals involved in such a program, will be featured. These conferences offer free preventive medicine to all children from infancy to school age.

The afternoon session will be a program built around a theme of "Building Together From Cradle to Stars." Dr. Richard Gay, president of the Delaware County Mental Health Association, will speak about a mental health program for rural families, to be followed by a question and answer period.

ASC Voting Scheduled For County's Farmers

Ballots will be mailed during the next few days to the approximately 2,300 farmers and farm owners in Marion County for the annual election of community committeemen of the Marion County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Three committeemen will be selected from each of the 15 townships in the county. These men will check on wheat and corn crop allotments during the next year.

Ballots for the committeemen must be returned to the ASC office by next Friday.

The committeemen from each township receiving the largest number of votes will meet Aug. 29 to select three county committeemen and two alternates.

Votes in the election will be tabulated by Robert Isler, Harold Beers and Carl Lehner who were appointed by a special election committee composed of various farm and governmental organizations in the county.

Horse trainer Russell Downes graduated from Penn State University as an engineer.

During the past week widespread rumors in Bangkok credited Peurifoy's influence with the responsibility for major political changes in the Thai Cabinet. These put staunchly pro - American Premier P. Pibulsonggram into undisputed leadership of the government and moved his chief contender for power, Police Gen. Phao Sriyanon, to a secondary place.

Peurifoy was born in Walterboro, S. C., the son of a district attorney. Young John was in his second year at West Point when his father died. This, coupled with ill health, forced him to leave the academy.

Paper Work

By George Sokolsky

A small business man in Milwaukee has sent a letter to Robert W. Burgess, director of the census, and he has sent me a carbon copy to which he appends: "Help, help and keep up your good work."

SOKOLSKY

He says in this letter:

"We are a small business with our sales last year about $60,000. All of our parts are prefabricated and we only assemble and ship. I personally do our correspondence and most of the bookkeeping with the help of a girl who assists part time. I also supervise production, as well as doing much of it. I have one full time girl who does detail work and one part time girl who helps her. I have two part time boys doing most of the production. So you see we don't have the staff to dig out the information you ask for.

"To tell you the weights of steel and aluminum we use would be impossible. We don't even have a scale. To list certain classes of wages and costs would be impossible because we don't keep our books that way. Besides these semi-finished products we used are already covered in the reports of larger companies, our suppliers. We haven't even finished our 1954 income tax report."

THE MISTAKE that the author of this letter makes is that he assumes that a benevolent bureaucracy cares whether he stays in business or not.

If he cannot afford to hire expensive accountants, keep a bookkeeper, a stenographer, an office-boy and put in heavy equipment, why not join a union and get a job in a factory? After all, on a $60,000 a year turnover, he can at most make $7,500 a year after taxes—I am taking a most optimistic figure, assuming that he and his wife do most of the work, if he has a wife.

Does the benevolent bureaucracy believe in private enterprise? Presumably, it is devoted to the cause, but truthfully it is only interested in the accumulation of data, statistics and the gathering and filing of papers.

The Hoover Commission's Task Force report on paper work and red tape is a learned and stultifying document which records a series of unbelievable insults to the intelligence of the citizens who are pestered by questionnaires which mean nothing and which gather data that is already in the possession of government.

THE TRUTH of the matter is that business men are generally stupid politicians. I recall a conversation some years ago with a remarkable business man who had made himself a couple of million dollars in honest business. This business man was complaining about this and that in government. I said: "This is still a free country. If you don't like the government, why don't you apply the same acumen that you did to business and get the kind of government you want?"

"Who, me?" said he. "I wouldn't think of going into politics."

"Then stop bellyaching," said I. "You business men generally get what's coming to you because you abandoned politics.

THE LAST business man who was sufficiently class-conscious to do a good job in politics was Mark Hanna who was destroyed by the literary genius and social scientist, Theodore Roosevelt.

What brought that conversation back to my mind was the fate of Harold Talbott, a business man who went into politics to collect campaign funds for the Republican party.

Talbott fell under the spell of Tom Dewey and worked real hard in the years when the cause of the Republican party seemed hopeless. Then a lot of New York business men and others went to Paris to implore Gen. Eisenhower to abandon NATO and run for president on both the Republican and Democratic tickets.

SO TALBOTT collected funds for the Eisenhower pre-Convention campaign and then for the election campaign and he was rewarded by being given a job that he could do well but at great personal sacrifice.

Like most representatives and senators, he kept a little business on the side, which is ethical for a congressman, but it is not ethical for a government official even if there is no conflict of interest.

I cannot get excited about these business men who get into trouble. As they do not understand the operation, they should leave politics to professionals, the same as they do their engineering and their advertising.

Photographers Capture Brando in Court Chase

LOS ANGELES, (AP) — Marlon Brando tried but couldn't dodge news photographers Thursday. He was in court on two old traffic citations.

"My chances of ducking you guys are 50-50," the actor told the photographers. "Try and catch me."

They did, once through a doorway opening from the courtroom. Thereafter Brando skipped from courtroom to judge's chambers, to a second and third courtroom. Finally, he climbed out a window into an alley and sprinted away. But a photographer was waiting there too and got his shot.

Incidentally, Brando was fined $50 for an illegal U-turn and driving without a license.

Hearing, Seeing

By Victor Riesel

HONG KONG

The Chinese go in for fine funerals. The departed is serenaded by an orchestra. The more distinguished the deceased, the larger the band. The other day on the hilly streets of Victoria (Hong Kong) one such band, playing American music, as usual, strode behind the coffin giving out with "Enjoy yourself, it's later than you think."

VICTOR RIESEL

No apocryphal story this. It happened. But, in that coffin might as well have been Western civilization. We better bestir ourselves.

My Chinese friends tell me they have a proverb: "A hundred hearings are not equal to one seeing."

Well, here in the Switzerland of the Orient you get a good "seeing" of what we're up against. Across the nearby border, beyond the pill boxes and the armed Communist Chinese soldiers, lies a colossus of 600 million people increasing at the rate of 12 million a year.

SOME OF ITS PEOPLE still live in 300-year old walled villages. They still transport material suspended in two packs at either end of bamboo poles resting heavily on human solders. But Communist China is most certainly not a slumbering, doltish nation.

Desperate for foreign exchange, it is now producing precision machine tools and selling them to Europe. It has developed a special waterproof cement mix of which we haven't even heard and is marketing that in Europe too. It is training hundreds of thousands of engineers and even now has enough to build plants turning out high grade steel and autos.

Given 10 years this Red China will have an army of 10 million men. It's industries will swamp Asia — perhaps even Europe.

AGAINST ALL THIS, everything we do seems so futile.

One of our aircraft carriers, Number 47, the Philippine Seas, swings in the Hong Kong Harbor. British jets maneuver overhead. In the Hotel Peninsula a few days ago, you could have sat in with Dr. Michael Bialoguski, a brilliant Australian counter-espionage agent who cracked a Soviet spy ring as effective as any the Russians ever ran in Canada or the U.S.

But despite all that these symbolize, we keep losing. Despite our superior arms and effective counter-espionage, we're on the run. We just don't seem to understand what's happening in this part of the world. We've sent chairs to the Indochinese, five or six to a family, as a gesture of good will to help them make their homes more comfortable. But the Indochinese don't use chairs. They laugh at us.

WE'VE SENT them rice. This, they grow themselves and in sufficient quantities.

We've sent them butter and cheese. But they don't eat cheese or butter anymore than you'd eat sawdust.

We give the Indians and the Japanese millions of dollars for technical development and they use they money in special areas to provide facilities which will win votes for the party in power.

We give, give, give, but we win no one over. The British here, give the Chinese refugees from however, have a better idea. They Communism a helping hand. But no one gets anything who won't work for it and match with human labor the money, the housing and other aid the British give out.

This colony has about one refugee for every inhabitant — and in a 40-mile area that's something.

The refugees are first housed in squatters' shacks dug into the mountainsides. Jobs are found for them. Then they are moved into areas around the plants. Huge balcony apartment houses are built for the proud Chinese. Hospitals and modern schools are all over Hong Kong island.

THE REFUGEES pay $1.50 American a month for their apartments — and are rehoused as swiftly as possible. British intelligence knows that Commie agents put fire to the refugee shanty towns. Only last winter a blaze burned out 56,000 pitiful homes. Fires flare regularly.

One philanthropic family, the Kadoories, lend money to impoverished Chinese at no interest — in an area where interest hits 30 per cent. Some 75,000 Chinese and 150 villages have been helped — with scientific pig raising, fruit trees, irrigation, fish ponds and fertilizer. Not one of these ventures has failed. There has not been a single bad loan.

The British here make capitalism work. So the Chinese have a proverb. "In Hong Kong you eat pork, in Canton, you drink congee (boiled rice water)."

When you just give, they call you sucker. When you help, they call you friend. And brother, do we need friends!

A Look Back

By Ed Creagh

(For Vacationing Hal Boyle)

GETTYSBURG, Pa (AP) —So the world is going to pot, eh? no respect for anything any more?

How does this sound, then:

"There was a sight to be seen in broad daylight a few days ago, in front of the presidential mansion, which gave those who witnessed it a shocking idea of the onward strides which the vice of intemperance has made in 'good society' during the last two years.

"A woman clad in the richest and most fashionable garments, with diamonds flashing from her slender fingers in the slant western sunshine, sat on the stone balustrade, unable to proceed on her homeward walk without betraying herself.

"At last she rose and started on, swaying to and fro, and yet soon rested again, utterly unable to proceed. The carriage of a foreign minister passed by—the poor woman was noticed—and it turned, stopped, took the lady, and carried her to her luxurious home.

"For the lady is wealthy, and occupies a high social position; but she was drunk in the streets of Washington!"

WHAT'S ALL THIS? An item from one of those slush magazines that smell up the newsstands today?

No, it's taken from page one of a highly respectable newspaper, one that described itself as "a family journal—devoted to foreign and domestic news, politics, literature, agriculture, education, morality, science and art."

The date was Nov. 24, 1863. That particular issue happened to be preserved because a fellow named Lincoln made an address here the week before, and there was a piece in the paper about it.

It's encouraging, sometimes, to dig into the past. Our revered ancestors weren't necessarily so much better than we are, after all. It's been a long time since a woman, with or without diamonds flashing, made a character out of herself in front of the White House.

Let's have a second look at what was going on in the world when Lincoln was in the White House, the Confederates were banging at the gates of Knoxville, and it took 6½ hours for the Washington-to-Gettysburg trip that President Eisenhower makes in a half-hour by plane these days:

A sure cure for "pulmonary consumption" was being advertised in 1863 by, of all people, a minister of the gospel—Rev. Edward A. Wilson, from, of all places, Brooklyn.

ANOTHER FRIEND of mankind was advertising, in this issue of the Adams Sentinel and General Advertiser, a guaranteed remedy for "scrofula, ulcers, and whim swelling." Wish he was still around. Our whims are getting out of hand.

This Adams County family journal was not without a sense of humor. It has an item about a woman in Bangor, Me., quite a piece removed from the 1863 battle lines, who saw a balloon ascension and drove her children indoors, screaming:

"There's one of Jeff Davis' big bombshells."

Newspapers were more sure of themselves in those days. They carried advice to their readers in the news columns. Here's a sample from the same front page, addressed to women:

"All men are vain; never wound this vanity; even in the most trifling instances. A woman may have more sense than her husband, but she should never seem to know it.

"When a husband is out of temper, behave obligingly to him; if he is abusive, never retort; and never prevail over him to humble him."

Amen.

Ohio Schools Requested To Follow Subject Law

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—R. M. Eyman, state education director, yesterday informed school officials to follow a legislative bill calling for instruction of Ohio history, geography and civics in the eighth grade.

Eyman's letter to the officials said if the recommendation is not followed, "an equivalent amount of subject matter" should be included in the curriculum prior to the eighth grade.

He noted in particular the requirement for a year of American history as a prerequisite for promotion from the eighth to ninth grade.

"We interpret this part to mean that a pupil must have completed the required course at some grade level before the ninth," said Eyman.

Trago Testimony Starts

GALLIPOLIS, Ohio (AP)—First witnesses are expected to take the stand today in the trial of Jackson County Sheriff David L. Trago, charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor. A jury of five women and seven men were sworn in yesterday. Prosecutor Warren Sheets said he will ask that the jury today visit the scene of the alleged violation here before testimony begins.

Lt. Gov. Brown Raps Lausche As Opportunist

LANCASTER, Ohio (AP)—Lt. Gov. John W. Brown says Gov. Frank J. Lausche's actions at the 47th annual Governors' Conference in Chicago are those of a "political opportunist, seeking to advance his own political motives at the expense of the Eisenhower Administration."

Brown, possible Republican contender for the governor's post, spoke yesterday at the annual picnic for Lancaster and Fairfield County Republicans.

Lausche, at the Chicago conference, had called upon Eisenhower to recall Congress so a highway construction program could be adopted. He said highway problems would become worse in future years if this were not done.

Brown said Lausche's own record "shows clearly that he opposed measures to bring Ohio highways up to par."

Brown called it "incredible" that Lausche "should now call upon President Eisenhower to assume responsibility for (highway) conditions the governor describes as 'intolerable' and 'acute.'

"This," said Brown, "raises the question whether Ohio's governor has been selected to lead those Democratic governors who are pushing the bandwagon of Adlai Stevenson to oppose Eisenhower in next year's election."

Brown said this wasn't illogical, since Lausche had supported Stevenson against Eisenhower in the 1952 presidential election.

It was the Republican-controlled state Legislature which recognized the needs of Ohio highways, said Brown, and provided the 500 million dollar improvement program without any initiative from Lausche.

Godfrey Damages Plane In Teterboro Accident

TETERBORO, N.J., (AP)—Arthur Godfrey, who's had trouble before at Teterboro Airport, damaged the right wing of his plane Thursday when it hit a ground light.

According to an airport spokesman, the red-haired entertainer was taxiing his DC3 on the runway in preparation for takeoff for his Virginia home. No one was hurt Godfrey was expected to take off sometime today after repairs.

In March 1954, Godfrey's pilot license was suspended for six months for flying low over the Teterboro control tower.

Greeks Appreciate Aid of U.S., Teacher Discovers

Alexander Is Back Home Following a Year of Foreign Service

LOOKING OVER A FEW OF the souvenirs he brought home from Greece and other countries he visited, Harry Alexander, New Bloomington school teacher, recalls his year as a Fulbright teacher. He was one of 40 teachers and research scholars in the nation selected last year for the Fulbright honor.

Appreciation of the aid which the United States is offering marks the attitude of the Greek people today, a New Bloomington school teacher, just back from that country, feels.

Harry L. Alexander, who taught social studies and speech and served as basketball coach at New Bloomington, returned home last week after spending one year in Greece as a Fulbright teacher, employed by the U. S. State Department. He was one of the 40 teachers and research scholars chosen from a list of 1,000 applicants. Alexander and Dr. Robert Bartels, Ohio State University economics professor, were the only two selected from Ohio.

Alexander, who has been on leave of absence from New Bloomington School, will return to his duties there this fall. He has taught at New Bloomington for 11 years and was employed at the old Kirkpatrick School one year.

THE OVER-ALL PICTURE in Greece may be gloomy, the New Bloomington teacher admitted, but the people cannot be described as depressed. They are grateful for the help our government has extended. Many of them think of the United States as their "dreamland" nd most of them hope to come here one day, he added.

Economically speaking, the country is poor. Only 20 per cent of the land is tillable since much of it is mountainous and barren. Yet 60 per cent of the people depend upon farming for a living, Alexander pointed out. Sheep and goats are main income sources and donkeys still are used both as beasts of burden and for transportation.

As a Fulbright teacher in Patras, Greece, a town of about 100,000, which is classed as the country's third largest city, Alexander taught both boys and girls, but in separate schools. There is no co-educational school there. He taught beginning English in six different schools and also conducted English classes at night for adults. In addition to his teaching duties, for the State Department he interviewed and conducted scholarship tests for students wishing to come to America.

An English-speaking instructor teaching English to Greek-speaking students is not quite as confusing as it may seem, Alexander related. By means of visual aids and many gestures the American teacher was able to instruct the Greek youngsters. Actually, school officials theorize that if only English is spoken in the English class, the students will more quickly grasp the new language.

LACK OF MONEY and space creates the startling contrast between the Greek public schools and our own, he explained. Less than 50 per cent of the Greek students are even admitted to high school. High school students are chosen by intelligence examinations and only the top pupils are accepted. Greek children are compelled to attend school only until the age of 12 years, when many of them become apprentices for particular trades.

There is no chance for individual recitation in the Greek classroom since an average class numbers about 90 students. Alexander said that while the classes he taught were considerably smaller, the classes taught by Greek teachers normally average from 90 to 100 pupils.

For the Greek high school student there is no selection of courses to fit his particular needs. All pupils of one class study the same subjects.

School is conducted six days a week during approximately the same hours as our own. The Greek student carries 10 or 12 subjects and does his "homework" at home for there are no study halls during the school day.

The Greek teachers were baffled when they observed the American instructor stopping on the street to chat with his students. They believe such an act is below their standards.

Alexander learned soon after his arrival in Greece that much of the country's language consists of gestures with the head and hands. He related one of his first experiences there, an attempt to purchase some shoelaces.

"Shoelaces," Alexander repeated the word for the clerk's benefit and pointed to his own shoelaces.

The clerk merely nodded his head up and down in a "yes" fashion and remained stationary.

Alexander tried the routine once more and again the clerk only nodded "yes." A short time later Alexander was informed by an understanding soul that a "yes" nod means "no" in Greek. He also learned that when a student in his class scratched his chin, it sometimes meant "I don't known."

The Greeks live in villages with their farms situated in the surrounding area. Many years ago this arrangement was started as a means of protection, but today it is followed mainly for social reasons.

Most of the homes are constructed of adobe and some have outdoor ovens. Many of the residents cannot afford stoves, so whenever they buy meat, usually once a month, it is taken to a bakery to be prepared.

THERE IS LITTLE entertainment in Greece, as we know it. There is no television and there are few radios because of a high tax. Some of the people attend movies and seem to enjoy most the American pictures with their Greek subtitles. The daily entertainment feature, Alexander recalled, is a promenade each evening. For about three hours all the people promenade the streets, walking along with friends or stopping at coffee shops along the way to talk.

Alexander found that it is customary in Greek restaurants to inspect the food in the kitchen before ordering. The food, compared to our standards, is monotonous, he commented, because the menu consists of whatever fresh fruits or vegetables are in season at the time.

In addition to his work in Greece, Alexander had the opportunity to visit many places, including Egypt, Africa, Damascus, Beirut, Jerusalem, Bethlehem, Austria, Yugoslavia and Portugal.

A graduate of Caledonia High School, Alexander was graduated from Baldwin-Wallace College at Berea and did graduate work in administration and education at Ohio State University and the University of West Virginia. During the school year at New Bloomington he resides in that village, returning to Tidewater near Caledonia to spend the summer with his parents.

Return to Greece some day? Alexander commented that he hopes to one day visit his friends there.

Radio and Television

By CHARLES ANDREWS
(Pinch-Hitting for John Crosby)

On Run for the Hills

Wake up, America. Your life is being threatened! A well-organized, insidious enemy is trying to rob you of your sanity. I have them in action and I know what I'm talking about.

Their aim is to reduce every man, woman and child in this country to a state of idiocy. They won't rest until all of us are sitting in our living rooms slack-mouthed and staring into space with vacant, bloodshot eyes.

How do these friends intend to do this, you ask? By giving us more entertainment than the human mind can cope with, that's how! They are making television programs so much bigger and longer and so much more expensive that sooner or later the American mind will snap. Oh, you can laugh . . . but, wait! Already the first moves toward the big breakup have been made.

REMEMBER THAT OLD program where a fellow answered a few questions and won $64? Well, a couple of weeks ago they had a little old lady who reads the Bible locked up in a glass cage and she almost won $64,000! How much can the human mind stand? People who have been watching "I Love Lucy" for years without ill effects keeled over in a dead faint that night.

Well, you say, I won't watch the program and then they can't drive me nuts. Fool! I have it on good authority that a couple of unemployed producers are mooching drinks at Toots Shor's bar and trying to figure out a way to build another program where the prize will be $64,000,000! Try and not watch that show if you can.

Remember when the networks put on a Spectacular every other week? That wasn't so long ago. Now they put them on every single week and they have just announced that they are going to repeat the good ones the following day. Most of us have barely recovered from seeing Carol Channing in "Svengali," and already they are talking about repeats.

THERE FOR AWHILE you could see a full hour dramatic show almost any night in the week. Starting this fall there will be a full hour dramatic show every afternoon, five days a week. They say that water slowly dropping on the forehead will rob a man of his reason. Think what will happen when it's hour dramatic show, hour dramatic show, hour dramatic show, day after day, week after week, month after month. How long will you last

These people will stop at nothing to keep you glued to your sets. As an example of how fiendishly clever they are, take the Jackie Gleason show. In the beginning it used to start out with a few jokes, nice old jokes that we all knew and loved. But, that wasn't enough. They added dancers. They added more dancers than anyone had ever seen before. And the dancers kicked higher and tapped faster than any other dancers in the world.

IT WASN'T ENOUGH to just let them tap and kick. You had to look down on them as they sat on the floor and made snowflake patterns. Now, everyone knows that a snowflake pattern on a television set is too much like the stuff you see through a 10-cent kaleidoscope to hold the interest of the audience.

Why do people watch so intently then? Because the men who planned it knew that sooner or later one of those girls would get mixed up and kick in the wrong direction and kick out the teeth of her tapmate and they knew that the audipen sooner or later and not one person in America would want to miss an event like that. Oh, I tell you. These people are clever.

They are going to go on making things bigger and better and more expensive until our collective lids will pop right off. There's only one hope as I see it. Here and there, although they are becoming increasingly hard to find, there is a little inexpensive show with grace and charm. Seek them out !And when you're lucky enough to find one, drop the folks a card. Just say, "I saw your little program."

That's all you have to do. If they get enough cards the people who pay for them will be only to happy to keep the little inexpensive show going. It's our only hope!

QUEENSTOWN, Md., (AP) —What publisher George J. Steinfelt believes is a pretty good record—73 years without missing an edition—will be purposely broken next week by the weekly Queenstown News.

Steinfelt told his readers today in a front-page notice:

". . . because we need a rest and vacation, I—the editor, publisher, owner, janitor, etc.—intend to take my family on a week's vacation. Hope we will not be missed too much."

Airliner Finally Freed After Runway Caves In

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP)—A 45-ton DC6 Northwest Airlines plane, trapped in asphalt at the Missoula County Airport for a night and a day, finally got out Thursday.

A tow truck worked all Wednesday night trying to free the plane from where it had caved through a soft spot on the main runway just before takeoff.

Finally huge jacks were used to raise the craft and crewmen got it up on planks. Then, with two engines roaring and two idling, it shot ahead onto solid footing.

About 45 of the original 70 passengers were on board when the plane left for Great Falls, Mont. Others had departed in other planes.

Among the passengers was Donald Nyrop, president of the airline, who stayed with the plane until it departed.

Bob Lemon To Start for Tribe Against Kansas City

Indians in Twinbill Today After Sweeping Tiger Set

CLEVELAND (AP)—The fans moaned every time the Cleveland Indians signed up another aging castoff—but they cheered this week as two of the oldtimers got off the bench and delivered clutch homeruns to put the Indians back in the American League lead.

Hoot Evers, 34-year-old outfielder acquired from the Baltimore Orioles, smacked a three-run homer yesterday to give the Indians a 3-1 victory over the Detroit Tigers, and a sweep of the three-game series.

The night before, Ralph Kiner, 32-year-old former National League homerun king, clouted a grandslammer in the last of the ninth for a 6-4 win.

Ex-Oriole and ex-New York Yankee Gene Woodling, who will be 33 next Tuesday, smacked five hits in the series. He has now hit safely in his last nine games, and has boosted his average 13 points to .288 since July 31.

Ferris Fain, cast off by the Tigers at 33 because he had a game leg, played errorless ball for Cleveland at first base, relieving Vic Wertz in the late innings.

Cleveland sends another veteran back into action today against Kansas City—pitcher Bob Lemon who has been laid up with a pulled leg muscle for several weeks.

Manager Al Lopez is counting on his collection of veterans, rookie fireballer Herb Score, and two fine young relief hurlers—Don Mossi and Ray Narleski—to finish strong and keep the pennant in Cleveland.

Indian fans are starting to believe it was smart to sign up Sal Maglie, the 38-year-old pitcher picked up from the New York Giants a few weeks ago. He hasn't come through—yet.

Yesterday's victory was the 14th of the season for righthander Early Wynn, boosting his major league total to 198. Among active pitchers, only Bob Feller with 265 victories has won more games.

Wynn scattered eight hits and blanked the Tigers after the third when they scored on successive singles by Harvey Kuenn, Bill Tuttle and Al Kaline.

Going into the sixth, the Indians had only three singles off southpaw Billy Hoeft, and no Cleveland runner had got as far as second base.

Al Smith grounded out to open the Indian sixth. Al Rosen walked and took third on Wertz's double to center. Evers then sent his game-winning homer into the left field seats, close to the foul pole.

Evers was holding down the centerfield post for the Tribe in place of the injured Larry Doby. The regular Indian slugger was hit by a pitch in the Wednesday night game and was unable to play due to a badly bruised elbow. It was the eighth home run of the year for the 34-year-old Evers, acquired last month from Baltimore.

Smith failed to hit in the game, ending a 12-game hitting streak, longest of the season for the Indians.

Lemon and Art Houtteman are scheduled to pitch today's day-night doubleheader in Kansas City. Arnold Portocarrerro and Art Ditmar will work for the Athletics.

Williams Belts 2,000th Safety Against Yanks

NEW YORK (AP) —"Wow, what a smash."

That was Ted Williams' reaction to his 2,000th major league hit Thursday, a high fly that fell untouched in short left center as shortstop Phil Rizzuto, left fielder Elston Howard and center fielder Mickey Mantle all failed to reach it.

Williams got his 2,001st hit in the fifth inning, a ground rule double into the right field stands that came off Ted's bat as if it were shot out of a cannon.

Despite Williams' two hits, the New York Yankees overcame the Boston Red Sox 5-3.

Stars Close Drills, Rest For Browns

CHICAGO (AP) —Tonight's the night a bunch of college boys try to beat the football pros at their own game.

The College All-Stars — made up of 49 of the top players of the 1954 college season — tackle the Cleveland Browns in the Chicago Tribune Charities' 22nd annual All Star game.

The contest starting at 8:30 p.m. (EST) at Soldier Field will be televised over the ABC network and broadcast over the Mutual radio hookup.

The game will be played under the professional rules allowing free substitution. Last year the All-Stars were defeated by the Detroit Lions' 31-6, playing under limited substitution rules.

The main difference from previous All-Star contests is that the current All - Stars have been coached in the wide-open, passing, pro style of play by four experts in the field. In other years this chore was performed by a staff of college coaches.

The current staff is led by Curly Lambeau of Green Bay Packer fame, assisted by Hunk Anderson, Steve Owen and Hamp Pool, all veterans of the pro football wars.

They have hand-picked their own squad, and the word is out that they have whipped it into a formidable aggregation for the big test against the National Football League champions.

The college squad is shot through with talent — quarterbacks Ralph Guglielmi of Notre Dame, Paul Larson of California, George Shaw of Oregon and Dave Leggett of Ohio State; ball - carriers Alan Ameche of Wisconsin, Bobby Watkins of Ohio State and Dick Bielski of Maryland, and linemen Max Boydston of Oklahoma, Dick Syzmanski of Notre Dame and Bud Brooks of Arkansas.

Cleveland, however, remains a two touchdown favorite, despite the loss of their great quarterback, Otto Graham, who retired at the end of last season. Graham's more than capable replacement is the veteran George Ratterman.

Aside from football, the usual pageantry of the All-Star spectacle will be on tap. The Kilgore, Tex., Rangerettes will put on their show between halves and numerous bands will appear.

Clear and pleasant weather was forecast for the game.

The proceeds — expected to reach $400,000 including TV and radio reimbursement — will go to United Charities, Catholic Charities and Jewish Federated Charities of Chicago. Some 75,000 fans are expected to attend.

Tad Weed Signed By Ram Officials

REDLAND, Calif. (AP) — Tad Weed, pint-sized place - kicking star for Ohio State's Rose Bowl champions last year, has been signed to a professional grid contract by the Los Angeles Rams.

Announcement of his signing wa. made yesterday by the Rams. Weed, 21, will join the Rams Saturday after tonight's battle between the college All-Stars and the Cleveland Browns.

The former Buckeye kicker, 5-5 and weighing 145 pounds turned in 60 of 71 attempts during his three years on the OSU squad. He also booted four field goals.

Denver Draws Crowds

DENVER (AP)—The moguls of the American Association are glad they voted Denver into their loop after Kansas City became an American League city. Denver, formerly a member of the Western League, has been packing its park with customers. In one stretch of eight nights, the Bears averaged over 11,000 per game.

The first righthanded pitcher to shutout the Cleveland Indians this season was Connie Johnson of the White Sox on July 9.

CATCHER CATCHES CATCHER. Sammy White, Boston Red Sox catcher, is out at the plate in second inning of game with New York Yankees in Yankee Stadium. Catcher Yogi Berra blocks plate and puts tag on runner. White attempted to score on squeeze bunt, but was put out.

Both Handed Defeats

Boston, Detroit Slip Further Behind Leaders in AL Chase

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Staff Writer

The American League race had its old look today, with Cleveland, Chicago and New York scrapping for the lead and Boston and Detroit, who gave it a nice try, slipping into the background.

The Indians held their two-point spread by whipping Detroit 3-2 Thursday while second - place Chicago pounded Kansas City 14-1 and third - place New York, another points behind, disposed of Boston 5-3.

By dropping the three-game set at Yankee Stadium 2-1, the Red Sox tumbled three games behind. The Tigers, shut out in three at Cleveland, are now eight games back.

Manager Al Lopez, who got a pinch single from Hoot Evers Wednesday night, started him against the Tigers Thursday. He smacked a three-run homer off Billy Hoeft in the sixth inning. That made it the second straight come-from-behind morale booster for Lopez's Injuns. Early Wynn won his 14th of the season.

In winning his first series victory since July 1-3, Casey Stengel juggled the batting order to get a bunch which swatted on cue and rapped three extra-base blows two of them triples. It was all over in two frames as the Yanks went off to a 4-0 lead against rookie Frank Baumann.

Bob Turley won his 13th, but he left in the ninth when Billy Klaus opened with a double. Southpaw Tommy Byrne, Casey's surprise stopper this season, knocked off Ted Williams who earlier finally got his 2,000th hit on a ground ball. Next, he got Jackie Jensen on a sacrifice fly that scored Klaus. Then he fanned Norman Zauchin.

The White Sox broke out for 16 hits and rapped loser Vic Raschi and reliefer Cloyd Boyer for seven extra-base blows in support of Connie Johnson. Jim Rivera drove in five runs all alone, with two triples and a double.

Those were the only games scheduled in the AL.

The National League also took a rest, with Brooklyn, New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh idle.

At Milwaukee, St. Louis righthander Willard Schmidt held the Braves to just one hit to win the nightcap 4-0 as the Cards swept a doubleheader. Milwaukee, beaten 7-1 in the opener on three unearned runs in the first inning, now trails Brooklyn by 16 games.

The only hit off Schmidt was Johnny Logan's leadoff single in the seventh. Stan Musial and Solly Hemus homered for the Cards.

Former Hurler For Cincinnati Handcuffs Jets

By The Associated Press

Frank Barnes, 27-year-old righthander, may be just what the Toronto Maple Leafs need to bolster their faltering pitching staff.

Barnes, who has been used sparingly during the season, struck out 14 Buffalo Bisons in 7 and 2-3 innings of relief last night as the Leafs whipped the Bisons 5-3 to remain one game behind the pace setting Montreal Royals, who routed the Rochester Red Wings 8-1. The Havana Sugar Kings in third place, 2½ games back, blanked the Columbus Jets 6-0, and the Syracuse Chiefs moved to within 1½ games of fourth place Rochester, by defeating the Richmond Virginians 4-2.

Barnes relieved Eddie Blake in the second inning with the scored tied 3-3 and fanned 14 of the next 21 batsmen he faced. He hurled no-hit no-run ball until Paul Lepley singled in the ninth.

Corky Valentine, former Cincinnati Redleg hurler, shut out the Jets on three hits. Valentine had pitched to 25 men going into the ninth inning when he loaded the bases but he got Russ Sullivan to pop out to end the game. Valentine struck out five and walked only one as he squared his season record at 4-4.

Jet starter Gus Keriazakos gave up all but one of the Cubans runs in his 6 1-3 innings. It was the Jets' eighth straight loss to the Cubans.

From Bum to Hero

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Dale Long, Pittsburgh Pirate first baseman, was a goat one night and a hero the next.

In a game against the Chicago Cubs, the Pirates were trailing 4-3 in the last of the ninth inning. The Bucs loaded the bases with two out when Long came to bat. He struck out.

The next night the Cubs and Pirates were playing a 1-1 tie. With one out in the ninth Long came to the plate. He hit a home run for a 2-1 victory.

The University of Texas football team has used the split-T for four seasons. This year they have added the "belly series."

Vance Wins Title Game In Little League Playoff

Vance Sporting Goods edged Isaly Dairy 5-4 in a hard fought contest to grab the deciding game of a three-game series and the 1955 Marion Little League championship.

The National League titlists won the game, marked by a protest and skirmish between Vance and Isaly players, with a run in the final inning.

William Flournoy held the Isaly batters to four hits in hurling Vance to the Little League crown. His mates gave him the win with a tally in the bottom of the sixth on two hits.

LARRY CROWE led off the frame by tagging Isaly's Gene Dulin for a single. He moved to third on a stolen base and wild pitch and it was at this point that Randy Leedom of Isaly's was thumbed out of the game after roughing. Crowe and Manager Wilson Ishida of the losers lodged a protest. Tom Larkin and Gerald Bosh drew walks and then Larry Saunders came through with a sing'e to chase home Crowe with the winning run.

Both squads scored first inning runs. Isaly took a temporary 1-0 lead when Larry Pickett led off the inning by walking and came home on an error. Vance tied it up when Crowe, who had reached base on a sacrifice, was forced home on a walk to Dan Roseberry.

Isaly took the lead again in the third with a pair of runs without aid of a single hit. A walk, a hit batsman and a fielder's choice loaded the bases and Leedom and Dulin scored on a walk to Jim Jonsson and a fielder's choice.

Vance came right back with three markers in its half of the inning to take a 4-3 lead. Gerald Bosh walked and Saunders singled. Dan Roseberry's sacrifice scored Bosh and Saunders came home on an error. Roseberry also scored on an error.

ISALY TIED it up in the fourth George Norris was hit by Flournoy, advanced to third on a sacrifice and single by Leedom and crossed the plate on a walk to Dulin.

Flournoy struck out three, walked nine and hit two batters in the winning effort. Norris started on the hill for Isaly but was relieved by Dulin in the fourth. Norris struck out three and walked four, surrendering four hits and four runs in a three-inning stint. Dulin fanned four and walked two in the final three frames during which he gave up four hits.

Saunders with three hits and Coffae and Crowe with two apiece paced the Vance hitting attack. Dulin collected a double for the losers.

Young Golfers Take Early Margin in Tam O'Shanter

CHICAGO (AP)—The rush to stake out claims on Tam O'Shanter's golf gold had reached Yukon proportions today as 27 pros, separated by only four strokes, tried to keep to the front in the "world" money stampede.

Three comparative youngsters defied the "shakes" to roll into the first round lead Thursday in an opening bombardment of par 72.

Bob Rosburg, 28, who grips a club like a baseball bat and swings for home runs; Mike Krak, 27, Czechoslovakian-born novice on the PGA tourney circuit; and Gene Littler, 25, fourth leading money winner — each shot a 66 to share the first round lead.

But there were others still strongly on the scent of a treasure that goes to the 72-hole winner—$50,000 in cash, $55,000 for 55 exhibitions, $1,000 in caddy fees, and an option on 50 more exhibitions at $1,000 each.

One stroke away at 67, were two seasoned cash seekers, Fred Hawkins and Bo Wininger.

At 68 were Antonio Cerda, from Buenos Aires; Henry Ransom, and longshot Jay Hebert.

Crammed in at 69 were Paul O'Leary, U. S. Open champion Jack Fleck, Gardner Dickinson, Wally Ulrich, British Open champion Peter Thomson, Errie Ball, Shelley Mayfield and Walker Inman.

Divisional leaders in the "world" tourney were:

Women pros ($12,000 in prize money) — Patty Berg and Fay Crocker, each with 5-under-par 71's.

Woman amateurs—Gloria Fecht, Inglewood, Calif., 76, and Ruth Jessen, Seattle, 77.

Reds Meet St. Louis in 3-Game Set

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs, two games away from a first division berth, battle the St Louis Cardinals tonight in the opener of a three-game series.

Joe Nuxhall, seeking his 13th victory, will pitch for the sixth place Cincinnatians. Luis Arroyo, rookie lefthander, will work for the Cards, 3½ games behind the Reds.

In their contests to date, the Cardinals hold an 8-7 edge.

Manager Birdie Tebbetts' hopes to land in the first division got a big boost in Chicago where the Reds took three out of four contests. The Reds blew a five run lead but hooked the concluding game 6-5 yesterday in the 11th inning.

Johnny Temple, the second baseman who is content with singles, hit a one-bagger in the 11th. He stole second and raced home when rookie rightfielder Jim King muffed Wally Post's two-out liner. It was the Reds third straight triumph and their 13th in their last 16 outings.

The Reds had built up a 5-0 lead by the fifth inning.

Smoky Burgess, Ted Kluszewski and Wally Post singled in succession for the first run in the fourth inning. Then Gus Bell walked and Stan Palys singled home two more tallies. Rocky Bridges' long fly brought in the inning's fourth run.

Temple walked in the fifth, advanced to second on Burgess' single and scored on Big Klu's single.

The Cubs got back three runs in the bottom of the fifth with the aid of a bad throw by Kluszewski. Ernie Banks homered in the sixth. His 39th roundtripper of the season tied him with the all-time homer mark for shortstops set by Vern Stephens of the Boston Red Sox in 1949.

With the aid of a throwing error and a wild pitch, the Cubs tied the score in the ninth. Roy McMillan was charged with a two-base low throw of pinchhitter Hank Sauer's out grounder. Jim Bolger, sent in as a pinchrunner, sprinted to third on a long fly and scored on Hershell Freeman's wild pitch.

Joe Black started for the Reds and was relieved in the sixth. Freeman pitched through the ninth. The third Red hurler, former Cub Johnny Klippstein, gained his fourth victory in 11 decisions with his hitless two inning relief job. Hal Jeffcoat was charged with the defeat.

Lone Six-Hit Show

NEW YORK (AP)—The only player to make six hits in one American League game this season was Joe DeMaestri of the Kansas City Athletics. He got his six in an 11-inning game against the Tigers on July 8.

No players collected six hits during 1954. The last man to do the trick before DeMasestri was Jim Piersall of the Red Sox who smacked five singles and a double in six times at bat on June 10, 1953.

Mel Roach, former football star at the University of Virginia and ex-Milwaukee baseball player, is doing a hitch in the Navy at Norfolk, Va.

Elks Nine Nips Police 2-1 In Extra-Inning Struggle

The Marion Elks upended Fraternal Order of Police's Teen League leaders 2-1 in a 12-inning struggle last night at Lincoln Park.

	W	L	Pct.
Marion FOP	13	3	.813
Marion Elks	12	3	.800
Marion Indians	11	5	.684
Prospect	10	6	.625
Pleasant	9	6	.600
Green Camp	8	7	.533
CCM	3	12	.200
LaRue	1	14	.067

Bob Messner decisioned FOP's Butch Simpson to push the Elks within a half game of the league pace setters. An Elks win tonight over Pleasant at Lincoln Park would leave both squads as league co-champions.

Pleasant, fighting for a berth in the league playoffs with Prospect, downed Claridon-Caledonia-Martel 7-4 in the other half of the twin bill last night. Marion's Indians bowed to Green Camp 6-0 and Prospect shutout LaRue 9-0 in other action.

A WALK AND single in the top of the 12th frame broke up the pitching duel between Messner and Simpson.

Marion Delaney's hit, eighth of the game off Simpson, climaxed the extra inning contest. The winners drew first blood in the third on a pair of walks and hits by Jim Armbruster and Larry Coy. FOP came back to tie it up in the fifth without benefit of a hit. Messner gave up four walks in the inning with Dick Hart scoring the equalizer on an error.

Messer struck out 18 and walked 12. Simpson was credited with 19 whiffs and gave out eight free passes.

Delaney, Armbruster and Coy all had two hits for the Elks, with Delaney clubbing a triple. Six different players shared FOP's six hits. One was a double by Bob Klingle.

Sharrell Leffler and Pete Owings, who came on in the fourth, combined to hold CCM to four hits in the nightcap.

They fanned eight, walked 12 and hit a batter.

A run in the first, two in the third, three in the fourth and one in the fifth were scored off Rice of CCM. The losers scored all their runs in the fifth on two hits.

Rice was tagged for seven hits. He fanned 10, walked seven and hit a pair of batters.

Sharrell Leffler with three hits and Jack Peacock with two sparked the Pleasant hitting attack. Rice pounded out three hits for the losers.

MERVIN STOVER held the Marion Indians to one hit in whipping them at Green Camp.

He fanned seven and walked two. Harold Jones of the losers only allowed three hits but wildness got him in trouble. He was touched for one run in the first, two in the second and three in the third.

The game was called after four and a half innings because of darkness.

Steve Lauer gave up only two hits—in the first two innings—in posting the shutout victory over LaRue.

He struck out 10 and walked four. Herrick and R. Isom of LaRue gave up eight hits to Prospect and were nicked for two runs in the second, three in the third, two in the fourth and two in the sixth.

They fanned nine and walked four.

Emery had four hits and Lauer collected two for the winners. R. Isom had a triple for LaRue.

Ringey Powers Minneapolis to Win Over Sox

By The Associated Press

Bill Rigney, 35, doubled in brass last night as manager and pinch hit homer hero to give his Minneapolis Millers a 4-2 win over Toledo and a three game bulge in the American Association pennant chase.

Second place Denver got plastered at home as Indianapolis teed off on four Bears pitchers for 14 hits and an 11-4 victory. Louisville edged past Omaha 5-4 on Joe Buck's clutch double in the eighth, and St. Paul split a double bill with Charleston.

The Senators won the first game 6-2, but host St. Paul took the second 6-5 on Jack Spears' two-run last inning triple.

Rigney stole the show in the Minneapolis-Toledo game when he inserted himself as a pinchhitter in the last of the ninth. With two out and the doubling Don Bollweg on second, Rigney broke up the 2-2 tie with a tremendous blast over the right field wall on reliefer Charley Bicknell's first offering.

Floyd Melliere got the win and Charley Gorin was tagged with the loss. Billy Queen homered for the losers.

Testing of Cattle Slated in Crawford

BUCYRUS—A laboratory for the testing of dairy cattle for brucellosis was set up Thursday at the Crawford County fairgrounds here.

County Agriculture Agent Russell Miller said the testing will be started next Monday with Frank Gunderman of Bellefontaine conducting the testing under the supervision of Dr. Bashore of Shelby, federal-state veterinarian for the area.

Dairymen in each township will contact dairy farmers and a milk sample bottle will be left with the farmer. After the farmer collects a composite milk sample from all his animals, the milk will be brought to the laboratory and tested by the ring method.

The state veterinarian's office is offering the free service. The testing is not compulsory.

Northern Team Given Edge in Scholastic Tilt

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's 50 finest high school football stars battle it out tonight in Mansfield High School's Arlin Field in the 10th annual North-South game.

The 25 Rebels and 25 Yankees go into the contest as evenly matched as any two teams which ever represented the two sections of the state.

In the previous nine games, the teams are even, each with four victories and one tie. Each hopes to break the deadlock under the lights tonight.

Faster Backs

The Northerners, under supervision of the 1954 coach of the year, Mel Knowlton of Alliance, are favored by a single touchdown due to their average 207-pound line and four fleet backfielders.

In a pre-game exhibition last night, all four of the Northern backfielders finished ahead of the Southern quartet in a 50-yard dash with Wilmer Fowler of Mansfield leading the way in 5.6 seconds. Joe Morrison, quarterback from Lima South, was second, and Jack Thompson, Toledo Waite halfback was third.

Even Clayborn Giles, Warren's 195-pound fullback, beat the best of the Southerners.

John Herrnstein, the South's 210-pound fullback from Chillicothe, was the outstanding star of the pre-game test, however.

Herrnstein, who will enter Michigan in the fall, won the passing for distance championship with a 62-yard heave, led the punters with a 48-yard effort and tied quarterback Bob Exline of Jackson by booting four of five placekicks from the 20-yard line.

Morrison was second in the passing event with a 57-yard throw, and Jim Heider, Toledo Waite end, was third with 56.

Denzil Ratliff of Middletown was second in punting with 45 yards and Heider third with 44½.

Finish in Tie

The passing for accuracy test wound up in a tie between the starting rival quarterbacks, Morrison of the North and Tom Kendrick of Lancaster, the Southern signal caller.

The rival captains predicted victory for their side, but the coaches were not so optimistic.

Knowlton said, "as far as our club is concerned, we are big but slow. The question is do we have the quickness to get the job done."

Larry Petersen of Lancaster, head coach of the Rebel corps, said, "They have more overall speed in the backfield but we have a couple of good ones too. Our line has improved immensely the last few days and our boys are in good spirits. They think they can win and I'll have to go along with them."

North team members were equally as confident. "We'll win it," was the flat statement from John Kompara, Canton McKinley's bearded, 240-pound tackle who defensively captains the Yankee squad.

A crowd of 10,000 or better is expected for the annual fray. The advance sale went over the 5,500 mark yesterday.

Although the series is even after nine years, the North leads in total points, 150-108.

There will be no spot radio or television coverage of the game.

Date Changed

For years the high school game has been played the same night as the professional and college All-Star game in Chicago, but that will be changed next season.

Jim Robinson, of Canton Lehman, who will be host to the North-South contest in 1956, said the game would be played the night of Aug. 18. The Chicago game is set for Aug. 11.

Local 4-H'ers Will Alternate Spot in Contest

Members of 4-H Clubs from 12 counties participated Thursday night in a district recreation and rural arts activity contest and a safety speech contest held at Wapakoneta.

Included among the contestants were 4-H members from Marion and the surrounding counties. Prospect's team of dancers won an alternate spot in the competition among dancing teams of two or more.

The team consisted of Diane Stiffler, Marian Jones, Joan Evans, Emily Holt, Phyllis Criswell, Mary Jo Knickel, Karyl Lee Bare and Eleanor Holt.

Rex Redding of Wyandot County was one of the winners in the safety-speech contest. He is 19 and has been in 4-H Club work for the last seven years. The other winner was Ann Wolfe of Hancock County.

In the talent division winners besides Prospect were from Van Wert County, Hardin County and Union County.

Van Wert County won first place in the musical contest for groups of two or more. Hardin County won the alternate position in the event. Union County took first place in the division of dramatics for two or more with a skit in the form of a style revue, showing fashions from the time of the Roman Empire to the future.

A Hardin County group took first place in the dancing demonstration for two or more. That was the division in which the Prospect team was chosen as alternates.

The winners will all receive one-day expense-paid trips to the Ohio 4-H Club Congress at Columbus in September to compete in statewide contests.

Vaccination is the only known preventive against hog cholera.

Atom Blast Hazard

Cover Necessary if One Would Avoid Bomb Flash

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE

NEW YORK (AP) — A brilliant silent eerie light, like nothing you've seen before, marks the beginning of an atomic blast.

If it ever comes, don't look at it, or you might be blinded for life.

Third of a Series

If you sense such a flash, duck, fall flat, or jump behind some projection. You could be injured by being knocked down by the blast, or by flying debris.

Out in the open, you have a better chance if you fall flat. And a still better one if you could dive into a ravine behind any little hillock, or into a hole. In town, fling yourself behind the protection of some building, if there is time.

IN NEVADA hundreds of persons have crouched quite safely in trenches within two miles or less of atomic blasts as big or bigger than those exploded over Japan. These people would undoubtedly have been safe even closer, for mother earth would have protected them from blast, from heat, and radiation.

The light comes first, and with it, simultaneously, the flash of heat, and the X-rays unleashed by the bomb. They are all quickly gone. Next comes the blast which can bowl over humans or buildings, depending upon how close they are to the explosion.

If you're in an automobile, open the windows a bit, and fall flat on the seat or floor.

Autos have been exposed to test bombs. With windows closed windows and windshields often were blown in, and broken glass could cut occupants. Tops were dished or caved in. But with windows slightly open, this damage often did not happen.

Underground shelters are, obviously, the best protection. But even shelters that stand above ground could save many lives in areas outside the immediate center of destruction. Concrete shelters — usable as toolsheds or spare storage rooms near homes that lacked strong basement shelter — stood up well despite being within a half mile or so of the atomic blast in Nevada last May.

Animals survived that blast in those shelters. These animals now are being observed to learn whether humans in such shelters might have suffered harm from the blast effects, or from radiation.

CITIES WITH subways offer a haven for thousands of citizens.

The heat flash is one hazard of atomic blasts. An intense heat wave reaches out, capable of giving skin flash burns, or setting fire to highly ignitable materials. The intensity — the ability to cause burns — falls off extremely rapidly with distance from the bomb.

Generally speaking, anything which is dense enough to cast a shadow can give protection against the flash burn.

The heat flash can start fires. So can a blast which might knock over a kerosene lamp or even a candle.

Danger from fires started by pilot lights on gas stoves may be very minor. In one test home in Nevada, the blast blew out the pilot light on a kitchen gas stove, with no fire or damage.

Closed Venetian blinds in one test stopped the heat flash, preventing fires of draperies or furniture. The blinds were blown down by the blast arriving some seconds later.

One atomic specialist gives this advice:

"If you see or sense that intense light, duck, and count to 10. If you reach 10, you have survived. Then you can check to see whether you have suffered any injuries."

There still could be hazard from radioactive fall-out.

Youngstown Nine Wins

DEFIANCE, Ohio (AP) — Youngstown will go into the Pony League World Series at Washington, Pa., starting Aug. 18, as the result of its win over Hamtramck, Mich., 1-0, in last night's regional finals. Only run of the game came in the first inning when Youngstown's pitcher Butch Wright took first on an error, stole second, and scored on another error.

SCHOOL EARNINGS

REVERE, Mass. (UP) — One hundred and seven Revere High School seniors earned a total of $68,325 by part-time work during the past school year.

STUDY U. S. CIVILIAN DEFENSE. American civil defense methods attract three visitors to the United States who don gas masks at testing grounds in Olney, Md. —:—

Cpl. Keith F. Sheets, son of Forrest I. Sheets of Delaware, recently was graduated from The Infantry School's advanced noncommissioned officers course at Ft. Benning, Ga.

The course is designed to prepare non-commissioned officers for duties as platoon sergeants with infantry regiments. Sheets, last stationed at Ft. Riley, Kan., entered the Army in September, 1953. He attended Delaware Willis High School prior to entering the service and completed basic training at Ft. Knox, Ky.

—:—

Prospect and Marengo servicemen participated in amphibious training exercises recently with the 1st Marine Division's 7th Regiment.

They were Cpl. Wayne Bingley Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto W. Bingley of Prospect, and Cpl. Carl N. Oler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Oler of near Marengo.

Sailing from San Diego, the regiment underwent five days of training off the Southern California coast and then assaulted a beach objective in an amphibious landing on the Camp Pendleton reservation near Oceanside, Calif. The Marines tested new amphibious landing techniques, including helicopter-borne operations.

Capt. B. L. Benton of near Richwood recently completed annual training maneuvers with a Marine squadron at the Columbus Naval Air Station, Columbus.

During the two weeks of training with Marine Air Reserve Fighter Squadron 244, he underwent training in the F9F-6 Cougar combat jet. He along with other pilots in the squadron received training in formation tactics, instrument flights and navigation cruise control.

Benton, a World War II veteran, was activated in 1952 during the Korean conflict and was stationed at Whiting and Saufley Fields, outlying fields of the Naval Air Basic Training Command at Pensacola, Fla., as a flight instructor.

A 1942 graduate of Richwood High School, Capt. Benton entered the service in June of that year. He underwent training in the V-5 program at Iowa Pre-Flight School and Bunker Hill, Ind., prior to receiving his wings and commission at Pensacola in August, 1943. He participated in the Northern Solomons campaign and in the Philippine campaign, for which he received five battle stars, during World War II. Capt. Benton also holds three Air Medals and was recommended for the Distinguished Flying Cross.

Employed at Ohio Edison here, he and Mrs. Benton have three children, two daughters, Barbara Adair, 5, Joyce, 1½, and a son, Jefferey, 9.

Mystery Bomb Found In New York Theater

NEW YORK (AP)—A crude bomb discovered in the huge Roxy Theatre has been linked with 22 other home-made bombs found in various public places here during the past 15 years.

The latest device - made of a five-inch length of small pipe - was found Thursday in the movie house by a workman repairing a slit in the upholstery of a seat. The seat had been taken to a basement shop.

From the makeup of the bomb, police believe it was the work of the same mysterious bombplanter, plaguing the city since 1940. Eighteen of the bombs have exploded, injuring seven persons.

Ohio Edison Plans Plant, May Use Atomic Energy

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—Ohio Edison Co. said yesterday it plans to build a 114 million dollar generator plant just west of here within the next five years, possibly using atomic fission as a power source.

New Uses Discovered For Highway Trailers

EAST LANSING, Mich. (UP) — Two Michigan State College agricultural engineers have come up with some farm uses for used highway trailers.

William H. Friday and James S. Boyd said the big vans can be put to use as grain storage units, tool sheds, shops, small farm machinery storage spaces, or even as housing units for transient labor. Flatbed trailers serve as excellent bridges over drainage ditches.

They pointed out that the federal government will approve granaries made from trailers for wheat under loan if the conversion job is done properly.

Boyd and Friday experimented with several conversion techniques and found they could put a trailer on a cement block foundation for use as a granary with about $60 in material and 27 man hours of labor.

Solvent Polio Units Urged To Rescue Others

NEW YORK (AP) —The National Foundation For Infantile Paralysis has urged its solvent chapters to turn in surplus funds to rescue needy units rather than have an emergency March of Dimes campaign.

Basil O'Connor, foundation president, said Thursday that already this year it has been necessary to help out hundreds of chapters in desperate need of funds.

O'Connor said $52,511,185 was contributed to the March of Dimes campaign last January but that this fell $12,000,000 short of needs.

"If all chapters spent the same amount this year as last for patient aid and chapter operations," O'Connor said "there should be about $10,000,000 in cash remaining in 1,781 chapter treasuries next Dec. 31."

The solvent chapters, he said, were being asked to turn over 50 per cent of their surpluses now and the rest later should circumstances warrant it.

O'Connor added that "our patient aid program could survive" if the chapters with surpluses contributed to the 1,274 units needing financial aid.

Chiropodists Needed

CLEVELAND (AP)—Smart young men should have a foot in their future, says Dr. Abe Ruben of Washington, D. C., executive secretary of the National Assn. of Chiropodists. Dr. Ruben, attending the association's 43rd annual convention here, said there is an acute manpower shortage in that field. There are fewer than 7,500 chiropodists to take care of the foot ills of more than 100 million persons, he said.

New Stamp Honors Gen. Robert E. Lee

The likeness of Robert E. Lee will appear on the 30-cent stamp to be issued by the Postoffice Department on Sept. 21. Expect Wunderbräu DAS TROCKEN-LAGER to taste better than the finest domestic beers because Wunderbräu—das trocken-lager is brewed from all-imported Auslese hops

by a braumeister who brewed famous German beers

The big difference in beers is flavor. That flavor comes mainly from the hops. The better the hops, the better the flavor. Auslese hops have far more of the delicate, true beer flavor and aroma. The only other beer brewed in America with all-imported hops like these is a very expensive draught beer never sold in bottles. (Auslese hops cost twice as much as domestic hops.)

Our braumeister uses his own "sofhopfen" method with these Auslese hops to produce a beer with all the wonderful soft hop flavor. So naturally, Wunderbräu is going to taste different to you. The color is brilliant, the body light and refreshing, the head smooth and creamy. And that flavor from Auslese hops? No one can describe flavor. You have to taste it for yourself.

Sincerely,

Tom Hensich

PRESIDENT

In 12 oz. and Full Quart bottles, in Cans, and on Draught

Portsmouth Believes Gigantic A-Plant Has Brought Many Benefits to District

By L. W. BURNS
Portsmouth Times Staff Writer

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—Portsmouth took inventory today of three years of the gigantic atomic energy plant project and found itself emerging virtually unscathed from the impact of the billion-dollar behemoth.

It was on Aug. 12, 1952, that the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) set up its Portsmouth area and announced it would build a gigantic gaseous diffusion plant on 3,600 acres in adjoining Pike County.

22,500 Once on Job

By November, the ground breaking had begun on what had been a rolling plateau of farmland five miles south of Piketon, 18 miles north of Portsmouth, 27 miles south of Chillicothe.

The construction peak came a year ago with 22,500 employes working in a three-mile-square section of a county whose entire population in 1950 had been only 14,000.

Since then the roster has dropped to just above 10,000, and a year or so hence the building phase will have been completed.

Then only the operating force of around 3,000 will remain, producing the Uranium-235 that provides the explosive for atomic bombs—and fuels the reactors which produce electric power, propel a submarine and produce radioactive elements used in scores of ways for the benefit of mankind in medicine, agriculture and industry.

Although the atomic plant payroll has been cut in half from the peak, and trailer parks and housing have begun to empty out as construction workers leave for other jobs elsewhere, Portsmouth finds the assets acquired in the last three years far outweigh the minor liabilities and inconveniences caused by the big boom.

Louis D. Bannon, president of the Chamber of Commerce, feels the community is in better position now to attract industries.

Says Everyone Beenfits

Vast highway improvements, he said, have benefited everyone. New schools and churches have been built and still are under construction. Many business houses have been remodeled. There are new homes, apartments and duplexes.

Scioto County is building a new airport—its first with a paved runway to accommodate airline service. The Norfolk & Western Railway has purchased a 600-acre industrial site as a future potential east of Portsmouth. The Ohio Power Co. has acquired a similar tract a little farther east for a future million - kilowatt power plant.

Construction and operating schedules on this third anniversary of the project are just about "right on the nose," said Kenneth A. Dunbar, Portsmouth area manager for the AEC.

"We did not require the manpower originally estimated for construction," he said, "and we won't need the manpower estimated for operation. But there's no change in the 'end point.' We'll come out about the same place as originally planned."

He commended Peter Kiewit Sons' Co., the prime construction contractor, and Goodyear Atomic Corp., which is operating the plant.

The flow of materials "on time" and good labor relations combined with good weather helped to cut about 2,500 off the peak construction payroll originally estimated.

3,000 To Be Hired

And new technology and training developed by Goodyear Atomic will reduce the eventual U-235 production roster to slightly more than 3,000, whereas about 4,000 originally were estimated.

There will be construction activity at the A-plant site for another year, although on a gradually descending scale. After the plant is finished, the area will be cleared of production materials and equipment and the AEC will dispose of surplus property.

All of the buildings are under roof and parts of the U-235 production process are in operation.

Goodyear Atomic, a newly set up subsidiary of Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. of Akron, is "substantially ahead of where we thought we'd be at this time," General Manager Albert J. Gracia said.

Goodyear has recruited its production force from many colleges and high schools and will continue its recruiting program in some 50 colleges, principally to take on replacements, Gracia said.

The turnover—vacancies created through marriage of women or for other reasons—so far has been low. Gracia placed it at 9.9 per cent. Goodyear assigns the reason to the stimulus of an exciting new industry whose employes—averaging 30 years of age—are getting in on the ground floor.

Total employment — including construction and production workers—was 17,994 the first week in January. On July 1, the total was 11,342—8,107 for construction, 2,911 for Goodyear, 99 for AEC and 225 for on-site architect-engineers.

On July 30 the total was 10,256 and by next December it is expected to be around 3,750.

Since the beginning of the project a total of 62,740,772 construction man-hours have been worked. This figure is expected to climb to 68,347,500 by Dec. 31.

169 Million in Wages

A total of $169,768,873.84 had been paid, as of July 1, in wages to employes of the Kiewit company and fixed-fee subcontractors. The weekly on-site payroll as of July 22 was $1,399,278.

To build the project, $97,746,905.61 worth of materials has been purchased. Subcontracts have been awarded to firms in 25 states and the District of Columbia, with Ohio firms receiving 147 subcontracts totaling $62,006,045.70.

Safety programs conducted by Kiewit and Goodyear Atomic have brought each company the highest award of the National Safety Council—the Award of Honor. During the last eight months, both companies have established records of more than three million man-hours of work without a disabling injury.

Ohio Valley Electric Corp. (OVEC) has completed 78 per cent of the facilities to be used in supplying power to the A-plant.

To supply eventually a steady flow of 1,800,000 kilowatts of power—twice the amount used in all of industrial Detroit—OVEC is building two generating plants along the Ohio River near Cheshire, Ohio, and Madison, Ind.

The current is being brought in over 330,000 - volt transmission lines, all of which now are complete. They are the highest-voltage lines ever put into use.

The A-plant, up to last June 30, had used 110,000 tons of structural steel, 603,188 yards of concrete, 9,680,000 square feet of roof area, 2,335,700 tons of crushed rock and gravel.

The site has 17.1 miles of permanent surfaced roads, 3½ miles of permanent unsurfaced roads and 17.9 miles of railroad track. A total of 30.3 miles of water lines have been laid along with 6.4 miles of sewer lines.

Tax Collections Rise

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cuyahoga County's collection of real estate taxes hit $107,036,842 for the 1954 period, the first time in history it has gone over the 100 million dollar mark, County Treasurer Leslie R. Monroe announced yesterday. It was an 8.2 per cent increase over 1953 returns.

If work done by diesel locomotives on American railroads in 1954 had been performed by steam locomotives, it would have cost the railroads more than $500,000,000 in additional fuel and maintenance costs alone.

Girl Stowaway Ordered To Go Back to Hawaii

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—It's back to Hawaii for Joycelyn Joan Pilapil, 16, probably the only girl who ever made the trip here in a Canadian destroyer.

She pleaded guilty Thursday in federal court to a charge of juvenile delinquency. She was given five years probation — and orders to go back to her parents in Hilo.

The U.S. marshal's office said the government will fly Jocelyn to Hawaii in a Navy transport today or Saturday, so it won't cost her parents anything. Her trip here on the destroyer Athabaskan in which she admitted stowing away—probably won't cost anything either.

"The commanding officer was happy enough just to see her leave the ship," said a spokesman for the U.S. Attorney's office.

Crawford County Buys Bridge as Replacement

BUCYRUS — Replacement of a badly damaged bridge on Auburn Township Road 51 has been authorized here by Crawford County commissioners.

The new 32-foot bridge is being purchased from the Edwards Sheet Metal Works, Inc., Fredericktown, on its bid of $3,660. It will replace a span, badly damaged by overloaded trucks and more recently struck by a vehicle.

The structure is located in the northeastern part of the county near the Richland County line. The bridge will be erected by the county engineer's department.

Addresses Kiwanis

Speaker Praises Classes In Distributive Education

Distributive education today, its operations and its importance to employers was discussed by Miss Marguerite Loos of the State Department of Education in Columbus when she spoke at the Marion Kiwanis Club meeting Thursday noon at Hotel Harding.

She pointed out an item in Nations Magazine which says "the nation needs one million salesmen." Training in distributive education, she said, is an aid to everybody, in all types of business. It is especially important today, she added, because customers have changed from their wartime buying.

TODAY, MISS LOOS said, a customer wants to know what he is buying, wants 100 per cent for his money, and he wants service, all of which points to the need for better sales personnel. It has been determined that 80 per cent of the merchandise sold today is sold by 20 per cent of the salesmen.

There is a difference between a clerk and a salesman, she pointed out, explaining that a clerk merely takes the money, wraps the package and hands it to the customer, while the salesman makes sure the customer knows what he is buying and what service he can expect.

Distribution, Miss Loos told her audience, is the third largest business in the country today. The economy of the nation depends on intelligent sales people. Never before has it been more important, she said.

From Miss Loos, Kiwanians learned there are training programs for those who sell a product as well as those who render a service.

Stressing the need for adult training, she pointed out that the Retail Merchants Division of the Marion Chamber of Commerce makes such adult training available through a program carried on here each year, the Retail Training Institute.

She explained that specialized training programs are available through the State Department of Education, adding that anyone interested can contact the local Chamber of Commerce office to set up such a program. Wherever there is a customer contact, she said, a program is needed and is available.

DISCUSSING distributive education as it is carried on in the high school here, she explained its operation to the club members. A local advisory committee helps with the screening of students. They go to school in the morning to classes covering all phases of selling, and in the afternoon they work in stores. There is a required minimum of 15 hours of work per week and relationship is strictly on a business basis.

A successful distributive education program, Miss Loos said, depends on the cooperation of school authorities, the co-ordinator or teacher, the merchants and the Retail Merchants Division of the Chamber.

The co-ordinator, she explained, is a well-trained individual who must have had, in addition to his college education, three years of successful customer business experience. He teach in the morning and in the afternoon contacts store managers to be informed of any shortcomings or needs for improving sales personnel.

Employers, she further explained, grade the students the same as they are graded in class rooms.

Young people today, she said, need salable skills. Distributive education teachers help the students to learn how to sell their ability to an employer.

She urged that employers take more time to interview and to advise their employes as to what is expected. It will decrease the number of turnovers in employes.

The State Department, she said, works with some 50 trade associations in setting up programs, and today there are 486 places of business that employe distributive education students. Colleges, she explained, will accept distributive education credits which students secure in high school.

ONE OF THE difficulties of distributive education, she told her audience, is that the term is not understood by too many people. It is on the same plane and level as other vocational courses.

Miss Loos highly praised the classroom facilities for distributive education classes at Harding High School, adding that they are the finest classrooms in Ohio. She urged businessmen to visit the school and see for themselves.

She also praised the cooperation of the Chamber of Commerce with the school officials in the work of the program.

Visiting Kiwanians at the meeting were Robert Brown of Woodville, O., Vernon Horst, who recently came to Marion as manager of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. office from South Bend, Ind., John C. Wolfe of the Columbus Hilltop Club, and R. F. Hartenstein of Akron.

Guests included Dr. G. H. Sanders of Tallahassee, Fla., Donald Campbell, Paul B. Cressor Jr. and Glenn Evans, all of the Whirlpool Corp. here, James Walbright and Fred Holman.

An announcement was made of the family picnic which will be held Thursday night, Aug. 18, at McKinley Park. There will be no regular noon meeting of the club next week.

Bible Words for Today

JAMES 4:17—"Whoever knows what is right to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin." (RSV)

Many of us tend to think of ourselves as being good and not doing what is evil, such as, we do not murder, we do not steal, we do not bear false witness, and etc. In other words, there is a tendency for us to consider ourselves good because we do not commit overt evil acts.

This verse helps to call to our minds that sin is not always in the form of acts of commission, but more frequently comes to us in acts of omission—of not ministering to those who need assistance, of not telling others about Christ, of not being a doer of His word but a hearer only.

Jesus in His model prayer that He gave His disciples instructed them to ask for forgiveness of their debts—obligations that they had not performed. (Matthew 6:12)

The Golden Rule is written "so whatever you wish that men would do for you, do so to them". (Matthew 7:12)

Stereotypers Back At Work in Dayton

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Stereotypers returned to work today at the Dayton Daily News after striking yesterday. The strike caused the News and its sister paper, the morning Journal Herald, each to miss a day's issue.

Robert Wolfe, vice president and general manager of the News, said agreement was reached shortly after 9 p.m. last night.

He said the agreement called for a $4 a week raise retroactive to last May 8 and and an additional $3 a week raise for 68 months beginning next May 8. No changes were reported in stereotypers' vacation setups.

Stereotypers cast the metal plates needed for printing.

The News, with a circulation of 142,442, was struck yesterday. The Journal Herald, with 88,500 circulation, could not issue this morning because of the late settlement, Publisher Dwight Young said. James M. Cox Jr. is president of both firms.

Gorilla Recovers After Operation

DETROIT (AP)—Maximo, the Detroit Zoo's new baby gorilla, was recovering today after an operation for a ruptured navel.

The 45-minute operation was performed Thursday by a staff surgeon at the Alexander Blain Hospital in Detroit.

Frank C. McInnis, zoo director, was as nervous as an expectant father. He smiled only when told by the surgeon: "Everything's fine. It was no different than working on a child."

McInnis hurried the 18-month-old gorilla back to special quarters at the zoo.

Seiberling Dies; Made 2 Fortunes In Rubber Industry

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Frank A. Seiberling, who made two fortunes in the rubber industry, died yesterday at the age of 95.

Seiberling was $40,000 in debt when he founded the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. on borrowed capital in 1898. He built it into the giant of the industry and amassed a personal fortune of 20 million dollars. But he lost the firm and his fortune in a price collapse in 1921.

Then 61, and 5 million dollars in debt, Seiberling and his late brother, Charles W. Seiberling, founded the Seiberling Rubber Co.

He retired five years ago as chairman of the firm. Pneumonia and complications led to his death.

Seiberling was born in Western Star, just a few miles from the abandoned strawboard factory in East Akron where he started Goodyear.

In 1887 he married Gertrude Penfield of Willoughby, who died in 1946. Six children and four sisters survive.

The School Board Race

The Marion City Board of Education race gives definite promise of being one of the highlights of the November election here, with seven candidates seeking three vacancies.

The decision of Dr. Daniel W. Brickley Jr. and E. Paul Bachman not to seek re-election means two very familiar faces will be missing from board sessions next year, since they have been members 12 and 10 years, respectively.

Both have served the Marion school system faithfully and well, and they are to be congratulated. Their terms on the board have encompassed a period of many major advances, including the school building program of recent years, and they certainly can retire with the knowledge that their noteworthy services have been appreciated.

Charles D. Harmon is the only incumbent seeking re-election. He will complete his first four-year term this year.

The remaining candidates — Dr. James S. Greetham, Wayne H. Kuhn, Paul W. Kohler, J. C. Ballinger, Mrs. Kenneth Roberts and Carroll E. Schmidt — all will be seeking positions on the board for the first time.

The fact that there are seven candidates for the three vacancies is extremely gratifying, for the nature of school board duties is such that candidates can be motivated only by a sincere desire to serve the schools and the community in which they live.

All seven are very worthy of your earnest consideration in the weeks between now and the November election.

Russian Mystery Story

The Soviet Union's Premier Bulganin told upward of 200 guests at a lavish picnic for ambassadors and their wives last Sunday he hoped the merry occasion would be only the first of many.

Geneva, he explained, had dissolved the barriers between Russia and the West.

But no westerner can take Bulganin's word for this—not until the Russian mystery story has been told.

When Stalin was running a one-man dictatorship, getting rid of his enemies with a pistol bullet at the base of the skull and barring the world from Russia with an iron curtain, Russian politics was easy to understand.

One man was putting into practice the absolutism that is the central force in the Communist conspiracy; he was the personal embodiment of socialist despotism. It was unthinkable that the power of the Communist conspiracy could be maintained by anything but personal dictatorship.

Yet, the Soviet Union today is being run by 11 committeemen. That is the mystery.

Has something happened to the absolutism that is the key to Marxist doctrine? Or have the absolutists of the Soviet Union finally made so much progress toward "dialectical materialism" that 11 of them can reach automatic agreements?

Americans want to think something has happened to absolutism. They want to think Marxism has gone away and will bother them no more because they are tired of grappling with it.

But until it has been disproved that 11 men in the Kremlin share a common point of view about getting on with the Communist revolution, it will be foolish to believe Marxism, or the ruthless force used by Marxists has changed.

It will take more than Geneva and a few picnics to change absolutism into toleration.

Hindsight on Polio

August is the climax of the polio season—the climax that everybody hoped would never have to be feared again when the Salk antipolio vaccine was pronounced successful last spring.

Hindsight is being used liberally on what happened to frustrate last spring's high hopes. The sum total of all the hindsight is this:

That inexperience in handling the problems of manufacturing and distributing vast quantities of a preperation on which so many hopes depended cropped out in so many places at once that the program laid out by the National Foundation For Infantile Paralysis bogged down under the weight of official and private errors.

It is important to remember that it was the program and the government agencies which went awry, not Dr Jonas Salk's antipolio vaccine.

With the experience that has been gained the hard way in preparing the vaccine and administering it, there is every reason to believe that by August a year from now the high hopes of last spring will have been realized.

When the new school term gets under way, the mass vaccination program can be resumed, this time under conditions that will bar the political sniping and general confusion that contributed to the confusion when the program began.

Recriminations have been a dime a dozen, but those who have made them and those who have deserved them have not detracted from the credit due to the research doctors whose studies were coordinated by Dr. Salk to give the world a wider margin of security against one of its most dreaded scourges.

Adlai or Averell

By David Lawrence

Both Democratic Hopefuls Have Major Handicaps

"Adlai or Averell?" This is the $64 question which the Democratic party has to answer soon. Will former Gov. Stevenson or Gov. Harriman become the Democratic presidential candidate in 1956?

Lawrence

There are some handicaps which each faces from a strictly political viewpoint. Politicians say that a divorced man alienates large groups of Catholic voters — and the former Mrs. Stevenson isn't making things any easier for her ex-husband by giving interviews about him.

Many of the big-city organizations of Democrats, who can be influential in controlling state delegations at a national convention, are well aware of the political implications of divorce. It is supposed to have beaten Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., for attorney general in New York State last autumn.

Nor is Gov. Harriman immune. He, too, was divorced once. He is, moreover, a multi-millionaire with large holdings in the Union Pacific Railroad which he inherited from his father, E. H. Harriman.

Maybe the campaign will introduce the chant that "What's good for Union Pacific is good for the country," and so on.

-:-

THE NEW YORK governor prides himself on being more "liberal" or radical than Adlai Stevenson on domestic matters. Despite Gov. Harriman's previous associations with railroad management, he stands well with the railroad labor unions.

The Democrats do not mind rich men in their ranks provided they dedicate themselves to a policy of "soaking the rich."

President Franklin Roosevelt hobnobbed with Vincent Astor and other men of wealth like Myron Taylor, but, except for the usual appointments to diplomatic posts, it didn't affect his radical approach or preachments of class warfare.

In Democratic party politics it is evidently important to be radical nowadays.

The theory is that it doesn't matter how mad the conservatives in the South may get, they'll have to vote Democratic anyhow. It didn't work that way in 1952, but that was when the South thought Ike would respect states's rights and wouldn't go as far on the segregation issue as he has gone since then.

In the North Stevenson has allied himself with the radical organization — Americans for Democratic Action — which played so influential a part in shaping the last Democratic presidential campaign. But Gov. Harriman, alert to the dangers of this so far as conservative Democrats are concerned, hasn't stuck his neck out on the ADA question and seems anxious to avoid too close a tie-up.

The real difficulty is that neither Harriman nor Stevenson has sensed the mood of the country so far as reflecting the protests or murmurs on public issues. Usually it is thought politically wise to exploit as many of the accumulated grievances as possible.

Harriman, by reason of his service as American ambassador to Soviet Russia, is watching foreign policy closely and is represented as thinking that this may afford the basis for a sharp cleavage among voters. Thus, the fraternization of Eisenhower with the Soviet's top tyrants at Geneva recently could, if the situation changes to one of disillusionment on the part of the American public, lead to taunting remarks such as greeted President Truman when he referred to Dictator Stalin as "Good Old Joe."

Harriman is known to have made rapid strides in political orientation since he served as secretary of commerce in Washington, and he is said to be keenly aware of how to take advantage of any weaknesses in the Eisenhower armor.

The fact remains that, so far as any positive, constructive, alternative policies go, neither the Stevenson nor Harriman speeches ring any bells with the electorate.

POLITICAL TRENDS in the past indicate that it isn't always necessary to offer any alternative proposals on either domestic or foreign policies, especially if there is a negative mood in the country — that is, if the voters are "against the in's."

There are times when the electorate doesn't much care who the other candidate is — they want primarily to get rid of the party or president in power.

The age-old strategy that seems to work in American politics is to use congressional investigations to discredit the administration in office. Thus the revelations about "deep freezes" and "mink coats" led up to the discovery of scandals in the Internal Revenue Bureau under the Democrats.

The Democrats in turn are now aiming their fire at businessmen in government, especially dollar - a - year men. Chairman Celler, of the House Judiciary Committee, is conducting a lively inquiry on the subject.

SEN. KEFAUVER, who doesn't seem to mind making cracks about the integrity of other people and who shows signs of adopting some of the much condemned "methods" attributed to a certain Wisconsin senator by the Democrats last year, is counted on to do a job on the Dixon - Yates controversy, though thus far the American people haven't gotten excited about it.

Many persons don't know whether "Dixon - Yates" is a vaudeville team or a TV show.

The next session of Congress may remedy all this, as the drive starts to use "guilt by association" as the theme of the Democratic effort to discredit Eisenhower and his administration.

Victory for the Taxpayers

By Raymond Moley

SANTA BARBARA

The taxpaying public should be happy to learn that, after what seemed to be interminable hearings, the Federal Power Commission has rejected the claims of proponents of a federal dam in Hell's Canyon of the Snake River and has licensed the Idaho Power Company to build three dams instead, at its own expense.

This is a great victory for the policy, adopted by President Eisenhower, of applying rational economic principles to the development of federal power.

The taxpaying public should be warned, however, that it has not heard the last of this matter. For Sen. Morse and other advocates of socialized power will still cry out about a "giveaway."

The citizen taxpayer should be also warned that to attempt to follow Morse and others in their arguments will immerse him in a bottomless ocean of data. It is my business to follow such a subject to its sources, and I have spent four years in that ocean.

The stenographic record of the hearings before the examiner for the FPC would, if laid in a pile, reach to the shoulder of a tall man. A book of hearings on the Senate bill for a "high" federal dam, compiled in eight short days in April and May, is 943 pages thick.

An earlier House hearing on a similar federal bill measures 886 pages. And before these there were other hearings and reports, running back eight years.

It is hardly necessary to tell newspaper readers that the controversy concerns the proper use of a site which is clearly favorable for hydroelectric power development. It is in the stretch of the Snake River which lies between Oregon and Idaho, in a canyon which is the deepest cleft in the entire surface of the United States.

This site greatly excited the interest of both the Bureau of Reclamation and the Army Engineers, for it would be possible to construct there the highest dam in the nation.

Under the Truman regime the Bureau of Reclamation got first call, and until the advent of Eisenhower the bureaucrats carried on a frantic campaign of propaganda.

Meanwhile, the Idaho Power Company, an independent, investor-owned utility which serves southern Idaho, western Oregon, and northern Nevada, developed plans to build three dams in the canyon at its own expense.

It has been customary in the discussion to speak of the "high" federal dam and the "low" dams of the power companies. But in the presence of a hole in the earth more than 7,000 feet deep, all dams are measured in superlatives. The company's proposed Brownlee Dam would be 395 feet high, which would put it among the fifteen highest in the United States.

The company's second unit would be considerably higher than Niagara Falls, and the baby at Oxbow would be twice as high as the present federal dam at Bonneville.

Congressional committees have consistently refused to give a favorable report on the Federal dam proposal. A Democratic House subcommittee voted against it in 1952, and a Democratic Senate committee refused to approve it this year.

The report of the examiner to the FPC in May have great hope to the opponents of the company's plan. For while it recommended that the company be licensed to build one of the dams, the Brownlee it pointed out that there were certain advantages in the "high" federal plan.

These so-called advantages were very dubiously arrived at. In the first place, the examiner accepted an estimate for the cost of the federal dam which is a minimum and which, on the basis of the history of Bureau of Reclamation estimates, is probably some hundreds of millions too low.

The examiner then arbitrarily, it seems — merely, as he said, to avoid the possibility of error — denied the claim of the company that its dams could be built for 133 million dollars about a third of the federal cost, and said that the cost to the company would be 191 million. The result of this change in figures would, he claimed, make the cost of power considerably higher if developed by the company.

The FPC in its unanimous opinion substantially overruled the examiner and granted licenses for all three of the company's dams.

Where Sen. Morse and the public power people will go from here is difficult to predict. Their recourse can hardly be to Congress, because if in the absence of this FPC decision it was impossible to get Congress to act, it certainly will be impossible to get action now. Moreover, if the company starts building, it will have such a firm commitment that any action by Congress to stop it would raise a powerful issue of constitutionality. There is a possibility that action will be taken in the courts to overrule the FPC before the company goes to work.

The taxpayer in far-away Texas or Pennsylvania or New York or Ohio should realize that this decision, if carried out, will save him much of the cost of the high dam plus what tax the federal government will get from the private company.

The people of the states served by the company will get power at a rate regulated by their own laws and, in addition to a break in their federal taxes, will derive local taxes from the properties involved.

Two Conclusions

By TRUMAN TWILL

Two conclusions are being clinched in millions of minds as the result of an inspired piece of giveaway showmanship that has become television's most talked about program—The $64,000 Question.

First: A federal tax policy that louses up a little man's one chance in a lifetime to get off the financial hook is a disgrace—a conclusion reached over the years by a great many others who made large sums of money in a single year before giveaway showmanship hit television—people like novelists and song writers.

Second: Some of the best informed people in the United States are to be found doing ordinary jobs, like cobbling shoes. This conclusion could have repercussions that would make everything else about the $64,000 Question sound like the rattle of a half-empty aspirin bottle.

The cult of materialism has grown so large, so aggressive, so fully packed in this country that it is easy to forget that not everybody belongs to it.

It has become easy to forget that it is possible to be on the outside looking in without being in some degree a failure.

It is hitting Americans like a ton of gold bricks that obscure people who never made a bank deposit in more than three figures and belong to none of the organizations for the perpetuation of the smug can be better informed about things like grand opera than the people who can afford to give away money at the rate it is used up on the $64,000 Question.

It is as though America were being discovered again—the America that makes discovery worthwhile.

There is room here for people who believe it is possible to live a life without more than a modicum of materialism and have done so without fearing the stigma of failure. It will be good for everybody concerned to be reminded that cobblers, cab drivers, plumbers, electricians, technicians, steel workers, mechanics and women who raise families for men who work for modest stipends may be as well informed as anybody under the sun.

And surely there is room here for a demonstration that it is just as possible to round up smart contestants for a giveaway program as it is to round up lame-brained drool - pusses who guess that Ulysses Grant is buried in Grant's Tomb.

Snobbery is part of the American way of life. All of us give in to the tendency to divide our fellow men into superiors and inferiors and to fawn on the first while brushing off the latter.

But dividing our fellow men into these above us and those below us is risky business. The standards we use are unreliable. A cobbler who can afford only standing room for grand opera may know more about opera than the opera lovers who are sitting down—the ones who put up the money.

Changing the U.N. Charter

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON

An influential Senate group has given President Eisenhower a blank check in deciding whether to support the idea of a United Nations' conference to consider changes in its charter.

After many hearings, this group —a subcommittee of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, headed by Sen. George (D-Ga)— said Tuesday Eisenhower should be free to suit himself on backing the conference.

Even if he did, that wouldn't necessarily mean there would be any charter changes. The United States could block any it didn't like. This is the background on the problem:

WHEN THE founding nations created the U. N. in 1945 they knew they had not established a perfect organization and that time and experience would probably show a need for changes. They provided for that in the charter itself.

They said in Article 109 that if by 1955 no changes had been made, then this year the General Assembly should have the question of charter changes on its list of problems to be considered at its meeting next month.

The 60 nations in the Assembly could squint at the charter-change problem and forget it. Or, they could set up a U.N. conference to consider changes. They wouldn't have to put the conference to work in 1955. They could let it start later.

There could be no changes unless:

1. Two thirds of the conference approved.

2. Two thirds of the parliaments of the 60 U.N. nations approved.

3. The Big Five — the United States, Russia, Britain, France and Nationalist China — also approved.

In short, even though two thirds of the U.N. members approved, any one of the Big Five could block any changes simply by its parliament or congress saying no.

In the case of the United States, there would be no approval unless two thirds of the Senate gave their blessing.

ANY CHANGE in the charter in the foreseeable future is unlikely. There is no world clamor for it. Far from it. Russia already has expressed opposition to changes at this time. That in itself, unless the Russians have changed their mind, kills any chance of revision.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Pardon Our Dizziness

Russia has come out with two new secret weapons, the heavy caliber all-purpose clambake and the jet-propelled park picnic. It is throwing de luxe woodland estate rock-and-roll parties, instead of invectives, and making an all-out drive to efface the impression of stony-faced iron men and substitute a picture of playful singers of "Sweet Adeline" at an Elk's picnic.

The top men of the Kremlin, long famed for hard - boiled exteriors, are following up the Geneva Smile with an Everybody-Out-for-the-Free-Clambake routine. The gruff Soviet cry of "See it my way or else!" is being replaced by a falsetto "Tennis anyone?"

EVEN WHILE HEROIC American airmen were relating the tale of uncivilized brutalities at the hands of Russia's Communist associates, Moscow's leaders were staging an all-day gala woodland outing for Free World diplomats and correspondents with songfests and gay-heartedness the keynotes.

The American ambassador was permitted to win a rowing race and his 15-year-old daughter was personally escorted by Bulganin around woodland streams. Marshals Zhukov and Konev, picking strawberries in an idylic setting, were portrayed as soldiers of peace, with or without whipped cream.

Toasts were drunk to international friendship, love, soft music, the mambo, Carrie Jacobs Bond, wood nymphs, the Rover Boys, Emmet Kelly, "Midsummer Night's Dream," Hans Christian Andersen, Arthur Murray and whoever wrote "It's Always Fair Weather When Good Fellows Get Together."

Over in Korea the two Soviet members of the truce inspection committee were still making a mockery of truce terms, but sweetness and light oozed from every pore at the picnic staged by the Kremlin for correspondents, press photographers and visiting firemen. Khrushchev almost came in on a wire disguised as Peter Pan, Bulganin was at all times a department store Santa and Gromyko would have been in the boat races except for a fear he might try a "walkout" from a rowboat.

IT IS POSSIBLE the Kremlin is making the first use of the outdoor barbecue craze as an instrument for world conquest. (Can a sheet made of empty charcoal bags and paper napkins be replacing the Iron Curtain? Is Russia heating a cold war with the fumes from an iron grate loaded with hamburgers?)

It is nice to know Chic Bohlen won a boat race but can we forget that heretofore a Free World envoy would have been put in chains for showing up at any Soviet party with a wooden oar even if he had no oarlocks?

Let us alert Washington at once! This may call for massive retaliation by all available chowder and marching clubs supplemented by all Free-World sponsors of woodland picnics and the songs "Enjoy Yourself" and "Kiss Me Again."

THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT is out with a stamp in honor of Robert E. Lee. . .It would issue one for Gen. Grant except for a fear it would kill letter-writing in the South.

You can't fool us with all these stories of man-made satellites, space ships and journeys into outer space at tourist rates. . .They coincide too closely with the news Orson Welles is back at work.

Estes Kefauver is so hot in pursuit of the matter that it seems okay to refer to the power team as "Dixon-Yicks."

The place where the Kremlin threw that woodland clambake for Free World diplomats was once the dreamlike paradise of Count Orlov, a favorite of Catherine of Russia, and the sort of luxury establishment that no Commie could stomach, even through binoculars.
